Victoria Meeting Asks B.C. Electric To Start Program

Municipal Committee Makes Recommendation To Councils—Approves No-Plebiscite Decision

A recommendation that the B.C. Electric be requested to proceed with its $50,000,000 development program was forwarded to the Victoria, Saanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt Councils by a special inter-municipal committee yesterday.

Representatives of the four municipalities met with Mayor Percy E. George to hear a report on the Vancouver meeting on public ownership of utilities, which recommended that no plebiscite be placed before the people.

In view of the lengthy report by Mayor George and A. J. Patton, city solicitor, Councillor R. A. Wootton, of Oak Bay, moved that the committee go on record as approving the action of the nine-man steering committee and endorse the Vancouver resolution. The motion carried unanimously.

Mayor George said that if no action were taken at this time the B.C. Electric might feel that the question of public ownership would be reopened in 1946.

The mayor said that he telephoned Premier Hart yesterday and he reiterated his stand that the acquisition of B.C.E.R. assets within the municipalities was a matter of "all or nothing." No action would be taken for Greater Victoria alone, the Premier said.

Mayor George said he explained to the Vancouver meeting that Premier Hart had held out some hope that the Province would also help in financing rehabilitation and expansion of the systems if the municipalities made representations after a plebiscite had carried.

HART'S TELEGRAM READ ON TELEPHONE

He then attempted to arrange a meeting between the nine-man steering committee and the premier by telephone, the major revealed. Premier Hart said that a telegram clarifying his position was on its way and Mayor George repeated it as it was read over to him from the premier's office.

From Europe Day by Day—

THE TIMES, London

News and Comment on International Events selected from The Times daily and published in The Daily Colonist by special arrangement with The Vancouver Daily Province.

(Copyright, 1945, by Southam Co.)

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Commenting with approbation on Foreign Secretary Bevin's remarks in the Commons, Wednesday, concerning British relations with Russia, The Times says editorially today it is well to emphasize the patent truth that no partnership between Great Britain and the United States, or even between all English-speaking nations, could by itself possibly form an exclusive bulwark or guarantee of world peace.

Such a notion has always been rejected by American opinion, and it is unlikely to appeal now. It is equally opposed to essential requisites of British policy, which can not disinterest itself in the affairs of Europe any more than from those of the world overseas, the editorial goes on.

From this point of view a close, lasting friendship with the United States forms one main pillar of British foreign policy, the other being an Anglo-Soviet alliance. Both are indispensable if the United Nations' Organization is to be more than a name.

The world today, continues The Times, is no longer the world of 1919. If this is to be the atomic age, it is also the age of a universal demand for higher standards of living for the masses, and for ideals of social justice which cannot be gainsaid.

Speaking about the atomic bomb, part of the debate, it declares the real issue at stake is whether manufacture of the bomb and exploitation of atomic energy are to be the subject of international collaboration or whether every country is to be encouraged to forget these devastating weapons to the best of its ability for its own advantage.

In this connection a scientific correspondent points out that as far as the general scientific principles on which the bomb is constructed there is not the slightest shred of secrecy. He says that only so far as certain industrial processes are concerned is there any secrecy, and even in this regard, scientists of the world are fairly well in the bomb construction picture.

Troops Fire Into Crowds In Romania

Six-Hour Riot on Michael's Birthday

By FRANK O'BRIEN

BUCHAREST, Romania, Nov. 8 (AP).—Romanian troops fired machine guns point blank into crowds at the Royal Palace today until a Russian general interfered, silenced the fire and halted a furious riot between Communists and supporters of King Michael.

I saw at least six persons fall when the troops machine-gunned a crowd at one entrance to the Royal Square. First estimates said at least five persons were killed and nearly 100 wounded.

Soviet General Susiakov, head of the Allied Control Commission in Bucharest, ordered the Romanian troops to cease firing, thus breaking up the bloodiest part of a six-hour riot between Communists and demonstrators holding a forbidden celebration of the King's birthday.

For hours guns barked, fists flew and several trucks were overturned in the milling riot which started when Communists charged the crowds celebrating Michael's 24th birthday.

The demonstration had been banned by the Soviet-supported Government of Premier Petru Groza, long at odds with the young monarch. Michael was reported out of the city at Slanic, 90 miles north.

Fifteen truckloads of Communists, waving clenched fists and shouting "Long live the Groza Government," roared into the square and tried to disperse the crowd of between 40,000 and 50,000 supporters of the King.

Fist fights started at 9:45 a.m. Just after noon the first shots were fired from the direction of the Ministry of the Interior, which faces the Royal Square.

The Communists returned the fire and the crowds scattered.

Shooting continued sporadically until the troops fired with machine guns into the crowds at 3:50 p.m.

Russian troops in the city took no part in the conflict.

In addition to the Groza Government's forbidding demonstrations today, a Government-controlled radio broadcast warned all persons to stay at home. Wednesday's newspapers said any celebration would be suppressed.

Societies Protest Chisholm Statement

MONTREAL, Nov. 8 (CP).—The immediate dismissal of Maj.-Gen. G. B. Chisholm as deputy minister of national health and social welfare on the grounds that he is "unworthy of the important post he occupies," is recommended in a telegram addressed today to Prime Minister Mackenzie King and Health Minister Claxton on behalf of more than 20 associations headed by the St. Jean Baptiste Society here.

Objection is taken to a statement which the telegram says was attributed to Gen. Chisholm during a speech at Washington, D.C., that "the idea of good and evil is a myth created by the politicians, the priests and all those who have an interest to keep us at their mercy."

Attlee's Address To Be Broadcast

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP).—Prime Minister Attlee's address Friday will be broadcast twice on CBR and Trans-Canada network stations in British Columbia. The broadcasts will be heard from 4 to 4:30 p.m., P.S.T., and from 8 to 8:30 p.m. Mr. Attlee will speak at the Lord Mayor's luncheon on the eve of his departure for Washington for discussions with President Truman.

"Their Decision Made" Declares Premier Hart

"They had the decision to make and they made it."

This was Premier John Hart's comment yesterday on the decision of Lower Island and Lower Mainland municipalities, at a meeting in Vancouver Wednesday, to forego a plebiscite on acquisition of the B.C. Electric Railway Co. Ltd. assets within their boundaries.

Premier Hart declined to discuss the decision of the municipalities.

He has consistently taken the stand that the Government would assist if municipalities decided in favor of public ownership of the B.C. Electric, and suggested property owners generally should be given the opportunity to express their views by plebiscites in each of the 31 municipalities concerned. The Government position throughout has been that the decision must be made by the municipalities.

Northwest Staging Route Meeting Set

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP).—A meeting will be held here Nov. 12 between Canadian and United States Air Force representatives to implement the taking over by Canada of installations of the United States Army and United States Army Air Force on the Edmonton-to-Alaska aerial highway known as the Northwest Staging Route, Air Minister Gibson announced tonight.

Report Declares Cartels Prejudicial to Dominion

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP).—Calling for establishment of a United Nations organization to curb cartels, a Government report tabled today in the Commons said international monopolies were part of a network of restrictive trade practices prejudicial to Canada's welfare.

The 60-page, 30,000-word report, compiled after a year and a half of study, showed the effect of cartel agreements on various products needed and exported by Canada.

In the chemical field, for instance, the report found that Canadian Industries Limited was brought into being by Imperial Chemical Industries and Du Pont to serve the Canadian market and was not permitted to export even when such trade was encouraged under preferential tariffs between Canada and other countries.

Canada's source of dyestuffs—important factor in the textile industry—was in the hands of a cartel whose associates included I. G. Farben, Du Pont and C.I.L.

General Electric's role in international arrangements also was discussed in a review of cartel abuses between the two Great Wars.

F. A. McGregor, commissioner of the Combines Act, was assisted in preparing the document by nine economists and legal experts drawn from Government service and universities. As part of their information-gathering program they circulated questionnaires among more than 200 Canadian firms, either members of cartels or doing business with cartels.

The report found that Canada, in common with other industrial countries, was affected by certain cartel practices. Some of the results were detrimental to the interests of the country. Others might be contended to be beneficial in that markets were guaranteed and prices stabilized for Canadian producers.

The report reviewed cartel abuses between 1919 and 1939 "drawn from the records of United States and Canadian inquiries" showing how international arrangements affected commodities for which Canada was dependent or produced.

Cases cited included:

1. A fertilizer cartel deliberately kept the resale of potash at a high level to prevent farmers mixing their

Communists Take North Rail Town

CHUNGKING, Nov. 8 (AP).—Chinese Communists, who today bluntly demanded that Government troops withdraw from Red-dominated areas of North China, have captured the Shansi-Province railroad town of Chaocheng and begun "the massacre" of its civil servants and Kuomintang (Nationalist) party members, a Chinese dispatch reported.

Government defenders of the town, south of Taiyuan, the Shansi capital, withdraw last Saturday night after their ammunition was exhausted, the belated dispatch said. In other parts of Shansi, the fighting continued with unabated fury with four towns under direct Red assault, the dispatch added. It said the Reds had been driven from two of the towns.

The Chinese Government meanwhile gathered its military leaders today for an unheralded "bandit suppression" conference in Chungking. Chou En-Lai, Chinese Communist spokesman here, termed the phrase just another name for an all-out drive to liquidate all Communists.

Suspects Sought

TOKIO, Nov. 8 (AP).—Allied headquarters today ordered the arrest of 300 more war criminal suspects, mostly guards who ruled by terror and murder over Allied prison camps in Japan.

Headquarters declared that war crimes investigators "had sufficient evidence in their files to constitute a prima facie case of war guilt against every one of the persons."

All Island Units Now Over Top in Victory Bond Drive

With all Vancouver Island units over the top, the stage is set for today's Canadian Scottish Regiment "tribute day" as one of the high points of the Ninth Victory Loan campaign.

Courtenay-Comox, Cowichan-Duncan and Saanich, Esquimalt, Rural and Gulf Islands all beat their minimum objective yesterday, joining other Island units in the tribute bond drive.

Spurring today's special drive, designed in tribute to the Canadian Scottish Regiment was the receipt of a cable from Lt.-Col. Cyril Wightman, officer commanding, that 475 men of the Scottish had subscribed to date for a total of $103,150 in Victory Bonds. Their quota was $22,000.

The regiment is now in England, and is expected home shortly.

In Greater Victoria a grand total subscribed to date of $9,792,850 represented $1,392,850 in tribute bonds, the figure being that much over the minimum objective.

Island figures to date follow:

	New	Objective	Subscribed
Greater Victoria	$11,760,000		$9,792,850

ISLAND UNITS—		Pct. of Subscribed Quota
Saanich, Esquimalt, Rural and Gulf Islands	$1,290,450	101.3
Cowichan-Duncan	1,124,000	103
Courtenay-Comox	736,800	151.8
Nanaimo	1,185,350	111.2
Alberni-West Coast	842,500	150.8

Derailment Ties Up C.N.R. Line

CALGARY, Nov. 8 (CP).—Traffic on the C.N.R.'s main line out of Calgary was tied up all day today after the engine and four cars of the Winnipeg-Saskatoon-Calgary passenger train were derailed about 20 miles east of the city.

Allied Intervention in Java Announced as Indonesians Ordered to Surrender Arms

Soekarno Appeals to Attlee and Truman After British Commander Issues Orders

BATAVIA, Java, Nov. 8 (AP).—A British commander in an ultimatum tonight ordered Indonesians at the Soerabaja naval base and other areas of East Java to surrender their arms by 6 a.m. Saturday or face "all the naval, army and air forces under my command."

"All Indonesians who are not willing to follow these orders will be responsible for the bloodshed which will definitely result," Maj.-Gen. E. C. Mansergh, commanding Allied forces in the eastern part of strife-torn Java, declared.

Fearful that heavy shooting will break out again tomorrow, President Soekarno of the unrecognized Indonesian Republic tonight appealed to Prime Minister Attlee and President Truman to intercede and prevent savage warfare throughout Java.

Soekarno's appeal was made shortly after the British ultimatum.

With 100,000 Indonesians reported massing in Central Java, the Indonesian-controlled Soerabaja radio summoned Nationalist forces to resist any attempt by Dutch troops offshore to reinforce the British Indian units holding a fortified zone at the Soerabaja base, scene of bloody skirmishes last week.

Gen. Mansergh's message to the Indonesian National Governor in East Java called for the disarming of all Indonesians except police, set the Saturday deadline, and declared:

"I will enforce these orders by the use of all naval, army and air forces under my command."

One Indonesian spokesman declared the ultimatum might precipitate "terrible bloodshed."

It was issued after a day of bloody fighting on the outskirts of Batavia in which 15 Indonesians were killed and two British Indian and two Dutch soldiers were wounded.

Gen. Mansergh's letter to the Indonesian Governor said: "You are hereby advised that Allied troops will enter the city and neighborhood of Soerabaja and other areas in East Java.

"I have been ordered by the commander-in-chief of Allied forces in The Netherlands East Indies (Lt.-Gen. Sir Philip Christison) to disarm the lawless mob, so that normal life in the city may continue, and the Allied policy of evacuation of Allied nationals and disarmament of Axis forces can be implemented.

"It is my intention to effect this disarmament and restore normal conditions at an early date."

No Results From Ford Conference

Prospects of Strike Settlement Little Better

WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 8 (CP).—Prospects of effecting a settlement in the Ford Motor Company of Canada strike were authoritatively pronounced "slightly better, but not much" tonight as Labor Minister Mitchell appeared in Detroit and set aside rumors he had chartered a special plane for Ottawa.

Earlier there were persistent rumors the Labor Minister had flown to Ottawa after a three-hour meeting at Detroit today attended by Henry Ford II and Attorney-General Leslie Blackwell of Ontario. Mr. Blackwell returned to Windsor.

The pronouncement that "things look slightly better" was understood to be based on progress achieved at the three-hour meeting in Detroit. It was learned meetings may be held tomorrow between Government and company officials, as well as a possible Government-union meeting.

Possibility of a further meeting between Government officials and the union negotiating committee was seen with the revelation that a Government spokesman late today told George Burt, Canadian director of the United Automobile Workers (C.I.O.) to hold the negotiating committee in readiness for a conference.

Last night, after the Government officials had held two meetings with Canadian Ford officials, authoritative sources said negotiations had broken down.

The meeting with Mr. Ford in his Dearborn, Mich., offices today was considered a last-minute attempt to end the 59-day-old work stoppage by conciliation rather than Government action.

During this afternoon Mr. Blackwell and Mr. Burt conferred for three hours in a downtown hotel. No statement followed but it was assumed that the question of law and order, in which Mr. Blackwell is primarily concerned, was discussed.

The possibility that the last major automotive plant in Ontario still free of labor troubles might be closed down by strike action next week was seen today, as union employees of General Motors and other plants in Oshawa began taking a four-day strike ballots to decide whether they will stop work in sympathy with the Ford Motor Company of Canada strikers at Windsor.

The Oshawa workers, members of U.A.W. Local 222, decided at a meeting Wednesday night to hold their strike ballot. The local has some 4,000 members employed in General Motors, Duplate Limited and Ontario Steel Products Limited.

Tourist Official

E. G. ROWEBOTTOM

Of Victoria, who yesterday was elected president of the Canadian Association of Tourist and Publicity Bureaux at the close of the annual convention at Toronto.

High Position For Victorian

TORONTO, Nov. 8 (CP).—Members of the Canadian Association of Tourist and Publicity Bureaus ended their annual convention today, electing E. G. Rowebottom, of Victoria, as new president and adopting a resolution which urged provincial government control of tourist establishments throughout Canada.

Before scattering to their homes across the Dominion, delegates also instructed the executive committee to organize a "national tourist educational week" each Spring and use every possible means to acquaint Canadians with the value and potentialities of a well-developed tourist industry.

The principal resolution recommended enactment of legislation for the control, licensing and inspection of tourist establishments by all provincial governments as yet without such legislation. The suggestion was made "in the interests of the health, safety and comfort of the traveling public."

At an earlier session today Mr. Rowebottom, British Columbia deputy minister of trade and industry, reviewed British Columbia legislation designed to assist the tourist industry. He said all tourist accommodation in the province will be classified for the tourists' benefit, through a licensing and inspecting system recently put into effect.

Royal City Man To Face Charge On Tax Shortage

NEW WESTMINSTER, Nov. 8 (CP).—A. J. Bowell, city comptroller and treasurer for 26 years, will appear before Magistrate H. L. Edmonds in police court tomorrow charged with the theft of $60,000 in Royal City tax receipts.

Mayor W. M. Mott said that the shortages on which the charge is based extend back to 1930.

Bail was set at $15,000 when the charge against Bowell was laid late today. He was arrested by police on instructions of Alderman J. A. Courtney, civic finance chairman.

The shortages were disclosed by Mayor Mott in a statement issued following a special city council meeting attended by auditors' representatives and all aldermen but Alderman T. J. Trapp, and City Solicitor H. Norman Lidster.

"As a result of a report from the auditors that there is a shortage of $60,000 in the accounts of the city, the council held a special meeting and confirmed the action of Alderman J. A. Courtney in ordering that Mr. Bowell, the comptroller, should be arrested," the mayor's statement said.

As both city comptroller and treasurer, Bowell handled "all the city's cash and cheques," Mayor Mott said tonight.

He had been a civic employee since 1908.

Settlement Reached

MONTREAL, Nov. 8 (CP).—Paul Lecours, president of the Montreal Local of the Packinghouse Butchers and Allied Food Workers of America (A.F.L.) said tonight that a settlement had been reached between the union and Montreal meat-packing plants.

The agreement, based on the report of Mr. Justice S. E. Richards used in settlement of the recent packinghouse dispute in Western Canada, provides for a reduction of six hours in the present working week, payment on six statutory holidays, and "fair general wage increases."

Snow, Gales and Rain Forecast For Today in Victoria District

Untimely low temperatures, accompanied by snow and blizzards in some sections, enveloped British Columbia and the Pacific Northwest yesterday, with the temperature in Victoria dipping to 22 degrees in the early morning.

Still more bad weather is in store for this area, according to the Dominion Meteorological Observatory on Gonzales Hill. Forecasters said last night the barometer was steadily falling and light snow was expected before daybreak.

Strong southeast winds are forecast for this morning, followed by southwest gales and rain.

The bureau forecast the wind would reach 40 to 50 miles an hour off the west coast of Vancouver Island and in the Georgia Strait.

Meanwhile, southeast storm warnings were hoisted along the Washington and Oregon Coast.

The Meteorological Bureau said warmer weather was moving toward the Coast, but, in the meantime, citizens were fighting off chills and worrying about the fuel situation.

Vancouver fuel dealers were besieged with orders for coal, wood and sawdust, but the supply of all will be adequate to meet demands if the cold snap doesn't last, fuel controllers announced. The mercury fell there to 21 degrees, coldest November day since 1936.

The fact many stocked up with coal during the Spring and Summer saved any serious crisis as a result of the sudden cold spell.

In the East Kootenays, residents chilled in near-zero temperatures. More than nine inches of snow have fallen at Cranbrook in the last four days and blizzards raged around Kimberley. At Michel and Natal in the Crow's Nest Pass, heavy snowfalls have blanketed the ountry.

In Washington, Snoqualmie, Stevens and Blewett Passes remained open, although ice and snow on the roads made travel hazardous. The Weather Bureau said there was some damage to the apple crop in Eastern Washington, where frigid temperatures and winds probed boxes stacked in orchards.

Howling blizzards swept through the Oregon mountains yesterday, and hope dwindled for nine flyers missing on two army bombers lost a week ago.

Officers at the Portland air base said the search was continuing when weather permitted. More than 100 planes are available to grid the area, but few have been able to get off the ground because of storms. Heavy snowfall in mountains not only made flying difficult, but may have covered signs of wreckage, officers said.

Vancouver to Load 75 Deep-Sea Vessels Within Seven Weeks

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP).—At least 75 deep-sea ships will load and discharge at Vancouver in the next seven weeks, Merchants' Exchange officials announced today. These include a fleet of 30 ships that will load for the United Kingdom, nine for India, seven for Vladivostok, five for South Africa, and six for Australia.

Two Australians Awarded V.C.'s

LONDON, Nov. 8 (Reuters).—Two Australian soldiers have been awarded the Victoria Cross, the Empire's highest decoration for valor, for their part in fighting this year in the Borneo area, The London Gazette announced tonight.

The Victoria Cross was awarded posthumously to Cpl. John Mackey, late of the Australian Pioneer Battalion, for "most conspicuous bravery in the face of strong enemy resistance at Tarakan Island, Borneo, on May 12, 1945." Tarakan Island, off Borneo's northeast coast, was invaded May 1.

The other Victoria Cross winner was Pte. Leslie Starcevich, of the Australian 43rd Infantry Battalion, for "most conspicuous gallantry and extreme devotion to duty in the capture of Beaufort, North Borneo, on June 28, 1945."

The awards brought to 164 the number of Victoria Cross winners during the Second Great War, of whom 12 were Canadians.

$12,000,000 Needed, Two Days to Go

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP).—Public and armed forces invested $5,876,850 in the British Columbia-Yukon area of the Ninth Victory Loan campaign today, but the area is still $12,000,000 short of her new $100,000,000 objective with only two days to go.

Provincial figures now stand at $88,686,550, which is 125 per cent of the original $70,500,000 quota.

In British Columbia the new loan is nearly $28,000,000 ahead of the eighth loan last spring. Armed forces continue to lead the field with 390 per cent of their quota already subscribed.

Leading civilian divisions are suburban, coast and Vancouver, in that order, with 133, 130, and 128 per cent of their respective quotas. Vancouver has produced over $40,000,000 or nearly half the B.C.-Yukon grand total.

Blames Japanese

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP).—Japanese cunning was cited as the main cause of present trouble in Indonesia by J. J. Poelhekke, secretary of The Netherlands Information Bureau at Montreal, in an interview here tonight.

Hess Doesn't Know the Screen Hess

NUERNBERG, Germany, Nov. 8 (AP).—Rudolf Hess, the No. 3 Nazi until his unexplained airplane flight to Britain at the height of the war, sat in the gloom of a projection room today and watched newsreels of himself during the days of his greatest power.

Also in the audience, but watching Hess instead of the flickers, were Justice Robert Jackson, United States chief prosecutor for the coming war crimes trial, and some phychiatrists. Hess is one of the ranking Nazis facing trial.

The Nazi, who asserts he can remember nothing, sat handcuffed to two guards as a 1934 version of "Party Day in Nuernberg" flashed on the screen.

He saw himself as a younger man, a zealot weaving a hypnotic spell over a vast Nazi party congress. He saw the Fuehrer practically dancing a jig in an ecstacy of appreciation.

The officials wondered whether the filmed document of a vanished glory would shake from Hess the amnesia which, he declares, has robbed him of all knowledge of past events. As suddenly as it began, the show was over. Lights snapped on.

Col. John Amen, chief interrogator, turned to Hess. As many a time before, he addressed him as "Herr Hess." Then, as though he were speaking to a child, Col. Amen said: "Do you remember?"

Hess motioned as if to brush his hand against his eyes. Slowly he said:

"I recognized Hitler and Goering. I recognized the others, but only because I heard their names mentioned and have seen their names on cell blocks of this jail."

"Don't you remember being there?"

"I don't remember. I must have been there because obviously I was there. But I don't remember."

CIGAR STORE ENTERED

A considerable amount of loot, including 29 watches, six pen-and-pencil sets, 10 pens, eight cigarette lighters, four [illegible] of $7.25 in cash and stamps from the till, was obtained by a burglar who, according to police, broke into Wachter's News Stand, 1320 Douglas Street, early yesterday morning. Police discovered the theft when a door was found insecure at 1:50 a.m.

Says Nazi Fugitives Continue Research On Atom in Spain

LONDON, Nov. 8 (CP).—Capt. S. T. Swingler, Labor member of Parliament, charged today that "fugitive German scientists are working on atomic research in Spain." He served notice that he would question Foreign Secretary Bevin about the matter Monday in the House [illegible]

In London, The United Nations War Crimes Commission said today German officials and industrialists realized in 1944 that the war was lost and plotted to continue research on secret weapons and to seek huge foreign loans to rebuild their country.

Airplanes, Cars and Trolleys Tied Up by Prairie Storms

WINNIPEG, Nov. 8 (CP).—A severe cold wave with below-freezing temperatures all through Western Canada today followed a swirling blizzard which left highways blocked, aircraft grounded and caused extensive damage in Manitoba.

The cold wave, descending from the northwest, spread havoc in Calgary where the street railway system was disrupted for the third successive day. Street cars remained out of service because of frost-snapped axles and damage to steel undercarriages, caused by loosening of pavement blocks. Damage would probably total between $75,000 and $100,000, one official said.

Roads in rural Manitoba were tied up by drifts as the highway branch of the Provincial Government reported only four ploughs were being used.

The town of Gladstone, west of Winnipeg, had a record November snowfall of 12 inches and faced possible isolation.

EDMONTON FEELS THE COAL STRIKE

Effect of the recent three-week strike of Alberta coal miners in protest against meat rationing was in evidence in Edmonton as the thermometer dipped to 16 below zero. A survey of district mines and fuel dealers showed Edmonton residents received only part of their coal and wood orders. "The strike put deliveries considerably behind," one dealer said.

No Trans-Canada Air Lines aircraft have taken off during the last 24 hours, and officials say the outlook remains indefinite.

Canadian Pacific Air Lines reported planes "completely grounded." The possibility of freeze-up of lakes has prompted them to begin changing from pontoons to skis.

Both Canadian National and Canadian Pacific railways reported trains running close to schedule. One C.P.R. train was 50 minutes late arriving in Winnipeg.

Winnipeg's 6.75 inches of snow during the last 24 hours was almost as much as the city normally gets during the whole month of November. The city engineering department expects it will take a week to clear the streets. More than 100 men, 35 horse-drawn ploughs and ten trucks were at work today.

In other sections of Manitoba the fall ranged from four to six inches.

Saskatchewan had light snow in sections and moderately warm temperatures, but its neighboring province of Alberta didn't fare so well.

Alberta was gripped in an almost Arctic cold wave. The thermometer fell to 31 below zero at Fort Vermilion, 30 below at Red Deer, in Central Alberta, and 24 below in Calgary.

Vancouver's famed mild Winters suffered a blow as a record November low of 21 degrees above zero was registered. This was two degrees below the previous low November mark set in 1940.

World Control Of Atom Bomb Is Expected

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (CP).—An increasing preponderance of opinion today appeared to favor international control of the process of producing the atomic bomb, the future of which will be discussed this week-end by President Truman, Prime Minister Attlee and Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

Scientists representing four organizations which had 2,000 members engaged in work of the bomb development announced formation of "The Federation of Atomic Scientists," a group pledged to work towards placing control of atomic processes on a world level.

Their argument is that the process cannot be kept secret from any progressive country and the only adequate control must be international.

Opposed to this international approach envisaging sharing of atomic knowledge with other powers is the May-Johnson bill now before Congress, proposing retention by the United States of all the atomic secrets it has.

It is expected here that Truman, Attlee and King will take the view that atomic power must be developed and controlled on a world level but with puncture-proof safeguards against its development in a clandestine manner or its use in a war of aggression.

Hugh Francis was elected president of the club, and Frank Fraser was named secretary. Others elected were: Robert Hoard, treasurer; Gordon Grant, registrar; Richard Stokes, Douglas Tuck and Reginald Kelly, directors.

India May Give Builders Here Ship Orders

MONTREAL, Nov. 8 (CP).—D. N. Khandke, of Bombay, India, said in an interview here today that Canadian shipbuilders and refrigerator plant manufacturers might soon be awarded contracts totaling more than $50,000,000 by the Government of India, provided they gave favorable quotations.

Mr. Khandke was commissioned by the Government of India to study fisheries in Canada and the United States and to make recommendations for modernization of Indian fisheries. His six-month tour ends tomorrow, when he will leave from here by air for India.

He said his Government might want about 1,000 fishing vessels, each about 65 to 80 feet long and equipped with refrigerating facilities. In addition, at least 100 ice-freezing plants for cold storage might be needed.

2. Canada needed British plate glass to fulfil "Empire content" clauses of the British preferential tariffs, but, despite the fact that in 1932 British plate glass was placed on the free list, auto manufacturers could not obtain more than 22 per cent of their requirements from England, having run athwart the plate glass manufacturers' private agreement.

3. Cartel agreements with European producers assisted United States exporters to maintain the price of sulphur—used in Canada's important pulp industry—at $16 a ton all through the depression, and to raise the price to $17 a ton in 1937, the two principal North American producers showing average profits of 13 per cent and 29 per cent, respectively, over a period of 20 years.

4. Canada's source of dyestuffs is in the hands of a cartel whose associates include I. G. Farben, Du Pont and Canadian Industries Limited.

5. Cemented tungsten carbide for machine tools could be imported only from General Electric and its subsidiary, which had obtained virtual monopoly control under an agreement with German Krupp. Following the agreement the price was raised from $50 to $453 a pound, falling to $205 a pound in 1936 and "remaining at that still exorbitant level" until General Electric was indicted under United States anti-trust laws. Then prices fell steeply to $32 a pound.

6. High-grade magnesia refractories could be obtained by Canadians from only two American manufacturers, who held the sole import rights in North America.

7. Import of titanium pigments for paint was subject to what amounted to a world combination.

8. In the chemical field, Canadian Industries Limited was brought into being by Imperial Chemical Industries and Du Pont to serve the Canadian market and was not permitted to export even when such trade was encouraged under preferential tariffs between Canada and other countries.

9. Electric light products are largely under the control of General Electric patents. Fluorescent lighting introduction was hindered until the monopoly was partly broken by an independent American company, now facing infringement suits.

10. Patent arrangements have been made to protect Canadian manufacturers from outside competition, while the establishment of holding companies to control Canadian patents restricts competition among Canadian licencees. Uniform prices for tubes are fixed by licence greatly above the level at which similar tubes are sold in the United States. Until 1939 Canadian consumers were deprived of low-priced radio sets of a type which had been available in the United States for a considerable period.

11. Match production in Canada was dominated by three firms controlling the world market. Members of the cartel, outside of Canada, maintained a policy of having Canadian production sold only in Canada, while they would refrain from exporting matches to Canada.

12. Export arrangements made under cartel agreements have affected certain commodities of which Canada is an exporter, including acetic acid, radium, aluminum, copper, lead, zinc, steel and kraft paper. These have generally served to relieve domestic producers from outside competition in the Canadian market and to provide for participation in export markets on terms acceptable to foreign producers.

Deny American Planes Slated For Chungking

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP).—The State Department today branded as "spurious and untrue" a report attributed to a Chinese Nationalist newspaper that 3,000 American planes in China would be transferred to Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek's Government.

A State Department official said the report appeared in the Chungking newspaper Ta Kung Pao.

Government officials said, meanwhile, that the United States has not as many as 3,000 planes in China. These officials, who asked not to be identified further, said it is possible that some planes had been transferred to the Chinese Nationalist forces but that they knew nothing about it.

Such a transfer would be a military matter they said.

This telegram broke up the meeting. Mayor George said, since by the time he left the telegram someone had moved that no plebiscite be held.

Vancouver representatives said they could go no farther if the acquisition were tied up with the rate structure in any way, the mayor said.

Both Mayor George and Reeve T. Hadfield, of Esquimalt, expressed regret that the question had not been put to the people.

Mayor George said that with Mr. Patton he had played a lone hand at the meeting. He stressed his belief that an application to the premier for assistance in rehabilitating and expansion following a plebiscite would have been met halfway.

A vote of thanks for their efforts and report was moved to the mayor and Mr. Patton.

Other representatives were Alderman Edward Williams; Councillor J. L. Hobbs, Saanich; Councillor W. M. Walker, Oak Bay.

Due at Vancouver

Three Vancouver Island servicemen, one from Victoria, are expected to arrive at Vancouver during the week-end.

The trio were among 24 others, most of them stretcher cases, who arrived on the East Coast recently from Europe aboard the hospital ship Lady Nelson.

Possibly coming to Victoria will be L.-Sgt. N. J. Klawer, whose friend, Mrs. W. A. Meade, Cadboro Bay, is listed in place of next of kin on the list.

Islanders, also stretcher cases, who are due to arrive are: Pte. W. T. Brown, son of Mrs. Mary Brown, 220 Roberts Street, Ladysmith, and Cpl. R. D. Zoost, whose father, Henry F. Zoost, lives at Port Alberni.

New Procedure On Car Prices

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP).—A new procedure for establishing maximum retail prices for new motor cars was announced today by the Prices Board, but will not result in increased prices. Retail price of cars will remain at the 1941 level.

The board order said that after November 19 manufacturers and importers must obtain from the administrator of motor vehicles the maximum retail delivered prices and notify dealers before selling. The price notifications will fix the maximum retail price for the model and maximum charges for options and accessories, transportation to the retail dealer point and a handling charge.

The order also said that any commission, reward or premium—including any used motor vehicle or any goods turned in or taken in exchange—must form part of the retail ceiling price for the new model car.

One Lost Hunter Turns Up Safely

KIMBERLEY, Nov. 8 (CP).—Valmore Morrison, 19, one of two hunters reported missing in the East Kootenay district, turned up at a lumber camp, ten miles east of here, little the worse for his 30 hours wandering in heavy snowfall and near zero temperature.

Meanwhile, search continued for 39-year-old Louis Majer, of Michel, who has been missing in the Elk Valley since Saturday.

Morrison, with his brother, left his nearby Meadowbrook home on an eight-mile trek to McGinty Lake last Tuesday. The pair became separated at the lake and search parties yesterday began combing the heavy brush country.

LONDON, Nov. 8 (CP).—Gen. Sir Alan Gordon Cunningham, former commander of the British 8th Army in North Africa, tonight was named High Commissioner for Palestine and Trans-Jordan, succeeding Field Marshal Viscount Gort, who resigned because of ill health.

The 58-year-old general, brother of Admiral of the Fleet Sir Andrew Browne Cunningham, also becomes Commander-in-Chief of Palestine, Middle East trouble spot and scene of recent Jewish-Arab clashes.

House Has Patriotic Sing-Song In First Action on New Flag

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—The long-awaited resolution aimed at creating a distinctive Canadian flag was introduced in a cheering House of Commons today and promptly drew a Progressive Conservative amendment calling for adoption of the Canadian Red Ensign as the Dominion's official banner.

However, just before the supper adjournment, Speaker Gaspard Fauteux ruled the amendment out of order because its wording would mean that the question could not go to a committee, as proposed in the Government's resolution.

While awaiting the division, the House broke into a chorus of patriotic songs, including "O Canada," "The Maple Leaf Forever" and "God Save the King," and then voted 99 to 40 in favor of the speaker's ruling.

In the absence of Prime Minister Mackenzie King, the resolution was moved by Veterans Minister Mackenzie, acting House leader, who stressed that in choosing a national flag there was no suggestion of ceasing to honor the Union Jack as the symbol of the British Commonwealth.

The Opposition amendment was proposed by Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C. (P.C., Nanaimo), who said he agreed with the need for a national flag and submitted that through long usage and ancient custom the Red Ensign had clearly become identified with the ominion.

M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, said his party endorsed the resolution and called for two further measures which he said were essential to Canadian nationhood—a national anthem and "the right to amend our own constitution." However, he disagreed with Gen. Pearkes that the Red Ensign was a distinctive Canadian flag.

The question of a distinctive flag long has been a live issue in Canadian political life and many times has been discussed in the Commons without result. In 1925, a Government committee of officials was established to choose a design but was disbanded after heated debate in the House.

A point often stressed in discussions over the years was that Canada's sister Dominions—Australia, New Zealand and the Union of South Africa—had long since adopted national flags.

Walter Kuhl (S.C., Jasper-Edson) said he thought it was premature to consider a Canadian flag because the Dominion first should put her "constitutional house" in order.

T. L. Church (P.C., Toronto Broadview) said he was opposed to the Government resolution and also to the Progressive Conservative amendment for adoption of the Red Ensign, which had never been the flag of Canada.

Say Poles Installed Gangs in London

LONDON, Nov. 9 (Friday) (CP).—The Daily Mail said today in a front-page article that Polish deserters and discharged military personnel had installed "gangsterism in the Chicago model" in London.

The newspaper said that Poles had "so terrorized" the Victoria area of London that the local criminals are now moving out. It added that "gangsters" carried guns and knives, were willing to fight to kill, and had organized "protective" associations for certain classes of women.

Will Publish Poems

Canadian Authors' Association awards have been made to R. H. Grenville, Victoria, for his lyrics "Chatelaine," "Death of a Deer," "From an Unknown Soldier," and "Common Ground." An award was also made to Annabell McCarroll for her poem "Rhymes of a Rationee."

Judges were A. H. Sutherland and Donald A. Fraser. The poems will be contained in a book to be published late this month.

Rumors Persist That Stalin Suffering Serious Illness

As Stalin Was Caught by Cameraman in Different Moods

PARIS, Nov. 8 (AP).—The newspaper Liberation Soir published today a dispatch from the Agence d'Edition de Presse, a small news agency, under a Moscow dateline which said that Generalissimo Stalin was taken seriously ill November 4 and was forbidden by doctors to appear this week at Moscow celebrations of the Red Revolution.

There was no confirmation from any other source.

Premier Stalin did not review the annual parade in Red Square nor did he deliver the usual address on the eve of the celebration. Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov took his place on both occasions.

The dispatch, which the agency said was from "one of our correspondents," said General Stalin suffered a heart attack at his villa at Sochi, on the Black Sea coast, where he was vacationing, and was transferred to a clinic at nearby Gagri.

It has been widely rumored recently that Stalin was ill, or about to retire. Various people, among them Molotov and Marshal Zhukov, have been rumored as his successor.

Jewish-Arab Palestine Issue Causes U.S. Jews to Disagree

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP).—The issue of Free Jewish immigration into the Holy Land, which long has been argued by representatives of all races in every part of the world, is a matter for equally sharp disagreement among the Jews themselves.

This is demonstrated in the United States by the existence of at least a half-dozen organizations, all largely Jewish, and with widely divergent views on Palestine immigration and Government.

Foremost among these are three powerful groups, two of them entirely Jewish, the third composed of Jews and Christians in a ratio of about two to one:

1. The Zionist organization, largest and oldest of the three, which has been the principal agency behind movements for a Jewish national home since the 19th century.

2. The American Council for Judaism, founded a few years ago by industrialist Lessing Rosenwald of Pennsylvania.

3. The American League for a Free Palestine, a non-sectarian and relatively new organization.

The split in opinion among Jews on the Palestine question is perfectly typified by these three movements, each with a totally different solution for the problems of world Jewry.

EACH ORGANIZATION HAS DIFFERENT VIEWS

The Zionists demand nationalization of the Holy Land under the Jews. They insist that Palestine eventually contain a Jewish majority, within which they see the Arabs living in peace and harmony under the principles of democratic government.

The other extreme, the Council for Judaism, believes the only hope for the world's Jews is assimilation in the nations where they now live. While the council admits the pressing necessity of opening Palestine to Europe's homeless Jews, it would draw the line there.

Midway between these two groups falls the American League for a Free Palestine, which advocates the opening of Palestine as a democracy in which all factions would receive complete equality.

Victoria Unions Help Ford Strike

Every precaution is being taken that the strike at the Windsor plant of the Ford Motor Company shall cause no provocation, William Sivell, United Automotive Workers' picket from Windsor, told a large strike rally in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium last night.

Alex McAuslane, first vice-president of the Canadian Congress of Labor, stated that the Ford Company had always been a leader of the open-shop movement.

In support of the strike, telegrams were sent from here last night to Hon. Louis St. Laurent, Minister of Justice, and Premier George Drew, asking that they take action to settle the strike, and also withdraw R.C.M.P. and provincial police. A third telegram was sent to the president of Local 200, U.A.W., Windsor, pledging the support of the Victoria meeting.

Several leaders of local trade unions spoke, and a sum of $493.78, including union cheques, was contributed toward the striking unions.

Canadians Richer Than Ever Before

TORONTO, Nov. 8 (CP).—Canadians are starting the new peace era with $6,763,000,000 more money than they ever had before and unless good sense is shown in its management a disastrous inflationary spiral could bring about impoverishment, S. M. Wedd, president of the Canadian Bankers' Association, said today in his address to the annual meeting of the association.

Mr. Wedd is vice-president and general manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

Referring to the accumulation of wealth in Canada, Mr. Wedd said $1,131,000,000 represented an increase in savings deposits, $241,500,000 in War Savings Certificates, $4,608,100,000 in savings invested in Victory Bonds and $783,000,000 was ready cash in pockets and till.

As long as it is necessary to avert inflation, some residue of wartime controls must remain in Canada, declared the speaker, but, he added: "I am sure it is the studied conclusion of all thinking Canadians that the ideal national policy would be one which aims to de-control as rapidly as order will allow and as the danger of inflation recedes."

JOHNSON LINE VESSELS

Resumption of the Johnson Line service from Scandinavian countries to Pacific Coast ports was announced yesterday at San Francisco. The new and modern motorship Uruguay will arrive at Los Angeles, November 21; San Francisco, November 24; Seattle, November 30, and Portland, four days later.

Loan Is Within Day's Reach Of Objective

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP).—Canada's Ninth Victory Loan jumped to within a day's reach of the record $1,500,000,000 minimum objective today when tabulation of Wednesday's huge sales of $120,536,950 jumped the cumulative total to $1,410,183,200.

With only two days of canvassing remaining and today's figures still to be counted, the three-week drive seems assured of reaching its objective by tomorrow. The average sales have bettered $90,000,000 daily and the grand total now is less than that amount from the national aiming mark.

The national total far exceeds the $1,052,270,950 recorded at the 15-day mark of the Eighth Loan, which overshot its $1,350,000,000 target by $150,000,000.

Individual citizens, reaching for the highest total ever attempted—$800,000,000, have already subscribed $746,440,100. In the large investment category, sales have reached $645,743,100 on an objective of $700,000,000.

Retailers Attend Business Session

Efforts made by British Columbia Division of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada to safeguard interests of retailers in the province were outlined at a meeting last night in the Empress Hotel. W. C. Mainwaring, vice-president, was chairman.

George R. Matthews, provincial secretary of the association, reported on recent conferences held with Federal officials in Eastern Canada. He noted the many problems faced by retailers during the war, and said: "We must be concerned with how the Government removes wartime restrictions. We must avoid the danger of inflation." It was the aim of his organization, he stated, to work for the standardization of selling prices throughout Canada.

Warning members of problems to come, Mr. Matthews advised that all retailers "buy with caution."

Keith Price, New Westminster, spoke on the proposed men's wear fashion guild, to make men more "style conscious."

G. L. Bell, chairman of the electrical appliance division, spoke on a standard of business practice approved by manufacturers and retailers, applicable to home appliances.

Mr. Mainwaring announced the British Columbia division would set up an advisory committee here.

Society Seeking Prison Reforms

Penal reform and action to curb "the persistent rise in the rate of crime in Canada" is called for by the John Howard Society of Victoria in an open letter to Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Prime Minister, and Hon. Louis St. Laurent, Minister of Justice.

Asserting that Canada's penal system was creating a criminal class by schooling young offenders in the practice and technique of crime, the letter urged implementation of recommendations made by a Royal Commission on penal reform ten years ago. Unification of Dominion and Provincial prisons under central direction and a permanent prison board were two requisite preliminaries to reform, it was stated.

Canada's crime rate rose 300 per cent between 1901 and 1935, the letter said.

The letter was sent over the signatures of the following community leaders: Mayor Percy George, Bishop Harold E. Sexton, Bishop John C. Cody, W. W. McPherson, president, Victoria Ministerial Association; Hugh A. McLeod, minister of First United Church; Norman MacKenzie, president of University of British Columbia; Fred Comley, president, John Howard Society of Victoria; John M. Ewing, principal, Victoria College; Richard Felton, president, Council of Social Agencies, Victoria; Ella M. Bingham, president, Provincial Council of Women; K. F. Carmichael, president, Victoria Council of Women; Alvena Campbell, president, Canadian Women's Club; N. Evelyn McLaurin, president, University Women's Club; Nancy Hodges, M.L.A.; Mrs. Tilly Rolston, M.L.A.; Mrs. Dorothy Steeves, L. H. Ballantyne, K.C.

Municipalities Bow Out

What happened at Vancouver on Wednesday, where the Council of Nine—a continuing committee representing 31 British Columbia municipalities that were nibbling at the public utilities bait—voted down, and out, a proposal to take a vote of their electors on the plan advanced by the Provincial Government, returns the issue squarely to the Province. If this matter is heard of again it will be in the Legislature, where the Coalition Administration must stand or fall on its own actions.

The moment that the municipalities understood clearly that it was their credit and their guarantee that was involved—something that we have been saying for months—they saw the picture in a different light. Had they not done so, had binding plebiscites been put in each area, the ratepayers would most likely have arrived at the same answer. As matters stand, the December and January civic polls may be a good deal more prosaic than they would otherwise have been, but perhaps all the safer for that.

If in three years campaigning the Provincial Government have been unable to convince the chief communities concerned that the acquisition of power and light as a publicly-owned utility is a good thing, there is a reasonable prospect that the Legislature will study the question when it arises there with its eyes opened. For this means that the Province would have to go it alone.

Any proposal that British Columbia double its contracted debt at a single stroke, and on a single venture, would need to be examined carefully in any event. If the cities have not the credit to go through with their portion—a small one—of the deal, has the Province itself? Where, in short, are all of these millions to come from? We think that the people have seen the answer to that. They would do the buying, the expanding and the paying, and for many a year to come.

There remains, of course, the Government's rural electrification program, for which money is being borrowed at the rate of $10,000,000 yearly. It will be for the Legislature to say just how far this policy is to be pressed. The normal revenues of this province in a year are around $30,000,000, of which more than a quarter goes now to service existing debt. With provincial revenues much in the balance by virtue of the incompleted Dominion-Provincial conference on taxation and tasks, it may well be that debt-retirement, and not debt expansion, should be our true course in the next few years to come.

Common Sense

Miss Byrne Hope Sanders, best known as the editor of Chatelaine, but at present director of the Consumers Branch, War Prices Board, made a common sense appeal to the public in several appearances in Victoria this week. Following every major war in history, she pointed out, there has been some degree of inflation. The wider that swings, the deeper the resultant crash. Yet, in a material sense, people inspire and incur that inflation. They make it step by step, by using money at a lesser worth. That is something that is of importance to this nation. We must all be more prudent this time.

With the inflationary policies which the Federal Government themselves followed in part in the war we are not now concerned. They included inflated costs and inflated wages for war work, too much traveling at large in Canada, the creation of some shortages which were artificial, on top of genuine emergencies and inescapable tasks as well. What we have to deal with as a people today is the legacy: that part of it which was unavoidable and that part which might with better vision have been averted. Canada, however, did hold down inflation by means of price control, once the real danger was seen and appreciated.

Miss Sanders' point—and it is well taken—is that the real test will come now. Are the people of Canada prepared to remain under some essential controls for a little while longer? Will they unite in stretching the dollar to do a dollar's worth of work? Will they refrain from actions which would drive down the value of their own money? Will they consciously fight inflation as they combined to fight, and to help win, the war? We think that they will. We think that common sense will win this further battle. It must.

The least acute and the most erudite observers can agree upon one thing: that inflation is a peoples' force. No government can stop it once it starts. No people can control it once it gets out of control. Inflation is the breakdown of control, and of self-control first of all. The preventive step is to make money give its whole value, to refuse to buy at inflated prices, to save, to spend for essentials only, to husband resources and not to squander them. Inflation is born with the nickels, and spreads to the dimes. It engulfs the dollars, and finally robs all. It can be prevented before it starts, and that is the only way that it can be stopped effectually. There is the challenge, to every thinking Canadian today, as Miss Sanders has ably pointed out.

Air Speed Record

Great Britain claimed the air speed record of the world this week, with a clocked and measured test of four courses averaging 606 miles per hour. A Royal Air Force machine, a Gloster Meteor, made the mark. It was piloted by Group Captain H. J. Wilson, R.A.F. One of the new jet-propelled aircraft, the Meteor made some runs faster than 606 miles per hour, but the average on all tests was that figure. Nor is it likely to stand for long, as turbo-jet speeds are opening to the world.

By way of contrast, an officially recognized air speed record was made in 1939 by the German Air Force, when Capt. Fritz Wendel drove a propeller machine at a registered 481.84 miles per hour. That was before the World War. Aircraft since have broken into new ground. What was considered "speed flying" has been left behind, and designers today talk in terms of the comparative speed of sound. Also, the turbo-jet principle is opening up new conceptions of altitude, having its greatest efficiency at height.

For the present, however, an air speed mark of 606 miles per hour is something to marvel at. It was earned honestly by a nation that has set the pace in design and engine performance for a number of years in succession. It remains to be seen how soon that mark will be challenged, and how long it will stand. In these days the competition is keen, and today's types of aircraft grow obsolete fast. Meanwhile, hearty congratulations to the Royal Air Force, and to Group Captain Wilson on his record fast flight.

Apprentice Training

There is wisdom in the suggestion of the director of Manitoba's Apprenticeship Act that Canada should train its own artisans rather than rely on immigration to provide skilled craftsmen. Labor cannot effectually play its full part in the life of the nation without continuous entry into its ranks of youths thoroughly trained in its skills and practices.

It was pioneer conditions which created the situation whereby a man labored for two years with a hammer and saw, and then considered himself a full-time practitioner of his trade. Immigration offset this by supplying a sufficient balance of journeymen workers to keep trades functioning with some degree of efficiency. But makeshift learning does not suffice in the world today. Training is imperative.

Canadian labor proved during the war that it had the ingenuity to adapt itself to new and unfamiliar trades. Retention of these and other skills depends on a uniform apprenticeship system established to keep up the supply of fully matured craftsmen. Not only does this provide wide opportunities for the younger generation, but also all trades benefit from the introduction of graduates trained by their own members.

The ready absorption of immigrants of attested apprenticeship suggests the value labor itself has placed on fully-trained tradesmen, and should merit the adoption of such a system throughout the country. In aiming at the highest standard of craftsmanship labor will not only benefit Canada as a whole, but also will strengthen its legitimate claims when its own special interests are under consideration. Skill is always at a premium.

Seen in Passing

The suggestion of a "tribute bond" is a good one. Our fighting men never refused any opportunity to advance the cause of freedom in the war. We cannot truly say we are done until we have invested everything we are capable of freeing for investment in the Ninth Victory Loan. The added bond or bonds may make all the difference between a successful appeal and a resoundingly hearty one. We should add "the tribute bond" wherever we honestly can. There are a few days left in which this may be done.

From the standpoint of popular interest, the ending of his term as New York's chief magistrate by Mayor Fiorella La Guardia who did not contest this week's elections will command the attention of Canadians, to whom he has become a familiar figure during his 12 years of office. While providing competent administration of the United States' largest city, the vigor and directness of the "Little Flower," as he was commonly called, added considerably to the general gaiety of nations.

On Venice

I stood in Venice, on the Bridge of Sighs;
A palace and a prison on each hand:
I saw from out the wave her structure rise
As from the stroke of the enchanter's wand:
A thousand years their cloudy wings expand
Around me, and a dying Glory smiles
O'er the far time, when many a subject land
Look'd to the winged Lion's marble piles,
Where Venice sate in state, throned on her hundred isles!

She looks a sea Cybele, fresh from ocean,
Rising with her tiara of proud towers
At airy distance, with majestic motion,
A ruler of the waters and their powers:
And such she was—her daughters had their dowers
From spoils of nations, and the exhaustless East
Pour'd in her lap all gems in sparkling showers.
In purple she was robed, and of her feast
Monarchs partook, and deem'd their dignity increased.

CAMPAIGN RIBBONS

A correspondent writes asking this column to list the various campaign ribbons worn by returning servicemen. While the men who wear them know what they represent, it is pointed out, the general public has often only a hazy idea of their significance.

This column is glad to accede to the request, to the extent of listing in a general way the awards authorized for campaign service against Germany and Japan. No mention will be made of gallantry decorations won by so many Canadians, such as the D.S.O., D.F.C., D.C.M. or M.M., which are more familiar to civilians by this time. Nor does space permit mention of campaign ribbons of the Great War, which are worn by some of our returning veterans.

Ten medal ribbons have been authorized for Canadian and British servicemen or women since the war began on September 3, 1939. They are the 1939-45, now the 1939-45 Star; the Africa Star, the Atlantic Star, Air Crew Europe Star, Italy Star, France and Germany Star, Pacific Star, Burma Star, the Defence Medal, and the Canadian Volunteer Service Medal.

Descriptions of the ribbons, together with a condensed version of the qualifications required, follow:

1939-45 Star—Dark blue, red and light blue, the colors representing dark blue for the navy, red for the army and light blue for the air force. For the navy, six months at sea in certain defined area of active operations; for the army, six months operational service, with some exceptions such as the Dieppe, Sicily and Spitzbergen operations; for the air force, two months operational service. A silver rosette on the ribbon denotes Mediterranean service, or air crew service in the Battle of Britain.

Africa Star—Yellow, red and yellow vertical stripes, the yellow stripes bisected by narrow stripes of dark and light blue respectively. For service in the North African and Malta campaigns. Personnel of the 8th and 1st British armies wear the numeral on the ribbon.

Atlantic Star—Blue, white and sea green, shaded and watered. For six months service afloat in the Atlantic on Russian convoys, or in British waters. Air crews are eligible if they have operated against the enemy at sea within these naval areas.

Air Crew Europe Star—Light blue with black edges and a narrow yellow stripe on either side. For 61 or more days operational flying over Europe and the United Kingdom.

Italy Star—Green, white and red, the Italian colors. For entry into operational service on land in Sicily or in Italy at any time during the campaign there after the capture of Pantellaria on June 11, 1943.

France and Germany Star—Red, white and blue, the colors of the Union Flag, and also a symbol of France and the Netherlands. For operational service on land in France, Belgium, Holland or Germany.

Pacific Star—Dark green with red edges and with a central yellow stripe. For operational service in the Pacific theatre of war from December 8, 1941, on.

Burma Star—Dark blue with a central red stripe and in addition two orange stripes. For operational service in the Burma campaign from December 11, 1941, on.

Defence Medal—Centre of ribbon is flame-colored and the edges are green, symbols of enemy attack on the green land of Great Britain. For Canadians, the qualifications is one-year non-operational service in Britain. If with mine and bomb disposal units the time limit is three months.

Canadian Volunteer Service Medal—Green, red, dark blue, red and green. For eighteen month voluntary service. A silver maple leaf worn in the centre of the ribbon denotes service outside Canada.

Generally speaking, a man must first qualify for the 1939-45 Star before becoming eligible for the other stars.

The France and Germany Star is not awarded in addition to the Atlantic Star or the Air Crew Europe Star. If a serviceman qualifies for these three stars, or two of them, the star first earned is awarded.

Similarly, a person who qualifies for both the Pacific and Burma stars is given the star first earned.

Time spent as a prisoner of war is counted towards the qualifying period for the 1939-45 Star.

Nazi Aid in Spanish Civil War Revealed

By L. S. B. SHAPIRO
North American Newspaper Alliance

STUTTGART, Nov. 8 (By Wireless).—The full and authentic story of Hitler's intervention in the Spanish Civil War has come to light. It reveals that Germany was a third-class military power in 1936 when the Spanish war broke out; that Nazi troops fighting for Franco never numbered more than 8,000 at any one time, mostly flyers and training personnel; and that although he was determined Franco should win, Hitler deliberately rationed his aid to make the Spanish affair last as long as possible and thus help divert the world's attention from Germany's war-making preparations.

The document containing all the facts concerning German-Spanish military relations between 1936 and 1940 is a 7,000-word affidavit written by Gen. Walter Warlimont, Hitler's personal representative at Franco's headquarters during 1936 and later Gen. Alfred Jodl's chief of staff at Hitler's field headquarters.

The document was authenticated by the official historian for the German General Staff, one Major Helmuth Greiner, who aided Warlimont in compiling the facts at the request of American intelligence officers. Warlimont is now at Nuernberg awaiting call as a witness in the war crimes trials, while Greiner is being detained elsewhere.

In July, 1936, at the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War, Warlimont was a lieutenant-colonel in charge of the economic section of the German General Staff. His affidavit asserts that Hitler had nothing to do with events that led up to the Francist revolution. The first faint German intervention came in mid-July of 1936, when Hitler placed a Duetsche Lufthansa plane at Franco's disposal for the historic flight from the Canary Islands to Tetuan, which was the signal for the revolution. The moment fighting started, Franco dispatched the same plane to Germany to plead with Hitler for immediate aid.

Franco's delegation consisted of high Spanish officers and two German businessmen. Hitler received the delegation in Goering's presence at Bayreuth, where he was attending the Wagner Festival, and he acceded to Franco's request for transport planes to fly troops across Gibraltar Straits into Spain.

Thirty Ju-52 transports took off immediately via France and the Pyrenees. This was followed in mid-August by a fighter squadron, accompanied by a fleet of transport planes containing ground personnel.

On August 25, Warlimont was summoned by Field Marshal Von Blomberg, who told him Hitler had decided that Germany and Italy would give Franco limited armed aid. Von Blomberg outlined Hitler's policy as follows:

Although German air support would be substantial, German aid on the ground would consist only of armament and sufficient personnel to train Spanish troops in its use. Commitment of German troops in battle would be allowed only in an extreme emergency and would require Hitler's personal permission. Warlimont was charged with seeing that Germany received an adequate return in urgently needed raw materials.

On August 26, Warlimont, accompanied by Admiral Canaris, Chief of German Intelligence, flew to Rome, where they met Mussolini and General Roatta. Mussolini agreed to Hitler's program in Spain and promised like aid. Then Warlimont boarded an Italian cruiser and sailed to Tetuan.

At Tetuan a German plane flew him to Seville, where he and Roatta conferred with General Quipo Dellano. The latter accompanied them to a first meeting with Franco at Caceres.

"Franco apparently knew nothing of our mission," Warlimont's affidavit asserts; "but he did not look surprised. He stated point blank that he required tanks, anti-tank and anti-aircraft guns and signals material."

Warlimont and Roatta each promised to send three companies of fully equipped troops to fill Franco's deficiencies. In October, the three promised German companies arrived, but Franco fairly panicked when he examined the German light tanks equipped with one machine gun each.

He excitedly explained that Russian tanks being unloaded at Alicante were much superior and he demanded that Hitler send better tanks. Warlimont said that the Germans possessed no better material and he would have to fight with this until German war industry could produce a heavier tank.

Meanwhile the Luftwaffe was exerting a big effort in Spain. The Junkers 52's had been transformed into bombers and fighters and had already fought successfully at Toledo. Luftwaffe personnel at this time numbered 1,200, but Franco continued to demand more aid.

On November 30, Admiral Canaris arrived at Franco's new headquarters at Salamanca to inform the generalissimo that Hitler was sending the Condor Legion, comprising 6,000 Luftwaffe men under General Sperrle. Actually, comments Warlimont, the whole conception of the Condor Legion was Goering's. He wanted to give Luftwaffe recruits battle training. The men were rotated frequently, and although the legion never had more than 6,000 in Spain at one time, its parade before Hitler in Berlin in the Spring of 1939 included fully 20,000 men.

Still Franco was fearful of eventual defeat and he demanded greater help. On December 20, 1936, Warlimont and General Faupel, the then German ambassador to Spain, met in Berlin with Hitler, Goering, Beck, Von Blomberg and Fritsche, to discuss the whole matter. Warlimont's report of this meeting is revealing. He writes:

"Faupel wanted three infantry divisions sent to Spain immediately. I objected on the grounds that although the Spanish soldier was quite a good fighter, it would not add to the German troops' morale to fight beside Spaniards. Goering and Von Blomberg agreed with me.

"Hitler expressed fear that it would be impossible to camouflage the identity of 60,000 German troops and also that such action on Germany's part would force France to intervene on the Republican side with fatal results for the Fascists. Moreover Hitler added that if they could concentrate the world's attention on Spain, it would help Germany. He was not anxious to finish the war quickly. Therefore Hitler decided not to send three divisions but only to increase the scope of German training of Spanish troops and to send additional war material."

Warlimont added that Mussolini did send three divisions, with doubtful results.

Although the result of the Spanish war was satisfactory, Warlimont concluded, Hitler never felt he got full value for his efforts. He and Goering heartily disliked Franco personally and there was constant quarreling on economic matters and over Franco's attempts to overwork Luftwaffe units. Spain didn't express proper gratitude for Germany's help and, despite many official banquets, relations between Spanish and German officers remained strained throughout.

On October 23, 1940, Hitler met Franco at Hendaye and asked for passage of German troops through Spain to attack Gibraltar. Franco refused and Hitler expressed himself very violently. Thereafter the Gibraltar plan was dropped and never revived.

Warlimont's affidavit was dated September 22, 1945.

BLUE FLASHES IN SKY

Sir,—Having just read your report in Tuesday's paper with regard to blue flashes in sky, I would like to state that I observed these very clearly for almost an hour on Monday night between 9 and 10 o'clock. While I was watching them, I happened to have by battery radio set turned on and I noticed that every flash synchronized exactly with an interference on the radio set, which proved to me definitely that the flashes were caused by electric discharges in the atmosphere. I have never seen lightning in this form or of such an intense blue before, but I believe that there is a form of lightning called ball lightning, which is quite a rare phenomenon, and which closely resembles in form and appearance what was seen here last Monday night. It would be interesting to hear from someone who is acquainted with the subject.

C.I.O. Asks Government Help In Dispute With General Motors

DETROIT, Nov. 18 (AP). — The United Automobile Workers of America (C.I.O.) today accused General Motors Corporation of unfair labor practices under the Wagner Act and at the same time asked Government intercession in its wage dispute with the giant auto manufacturing company.

Vice-President Walter P. Reuther said the union's charge against General Motors was based on the fact that the corporation, while "pleading inability to pay a wage increase," at the same time refuses to discuss "its ability to pay" with the union.

The corporation, Mr. Reuther said, also refuses to discuss with the union "its profits and its price position."

The union's charge climaxed many weeks of dispute over the U.A.W.-C.I.O.'s demand for a flat 30 per cent wage rate increase. General Motors flatly rejected the demand, countering with a cost of living wage increase proposal which the union in turn cold-shouldered.

Plan Art Exhibition

A collection of 900 photo engravings of birds and trees of North America, water colored by Rex Brasher, will be displayed in the Empress Hotel from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. next Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. Robert Carter is in charge of the exhibition.

Mr. Brasher, who resides in Connecticut, took more than 40 years to complete the collection, which is in 12 large volumes. The original paintings were purchased by the State of Connecticut, and will be housed in a $250,000 museum.

Meat Packers' Pay Increase Now Possible

TORONTO, Nov. 8 (CP).—Application for new wage scales in Ontario plants of Canada Packers, Ltd., and Swift Canadian Co. was made today at a closed hearing before the Ontario Regional War Labor Board. No decision was announced.

It was understood the wage rates sought are those agreed upon last week in Winnipeg at a conference presided over by Mr. Justice S. E. Richards. The conference was between the United Packinghouse Workers of America (C.I.O.) and Canada's "Big Three" packing chains, Canada Packers, Swift Canadian and Burns & Company.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 8 (CP). — Adam Borsk, field representative, United Packinghouse Workers of America (C.I.O.) today cleared the way for the Manitoba Regional War Labor Board to hear packinghouse workers' application for increased wages under an agreement negotiated with Canada Packers, Swift Canadian and Burns & Company.

In a letter to W. Elliott Wilson, chief executive officer of the board, the union official denied an earlier report that a strike threat still hovers over the industry and its 12,000 workers.

The board's procedure is that it cannot hear an application for wage adjustments in any industry where a strike threat exists.

Appreciate Victoria

A number of British repatriated prisoners of war from Gordon Head and Fort Macaulay brought the following letter of appreciation to The Daily Colonist yesterday:

"No one who has enjoyed the magnificent hospitality which we received during the last few weeks could leave you without public expression of our sincere gratitude.

"The way in which you threw open your doors to us, the pleasure of your beautiful countryside, the knowledge that we were within the Empire again, and the happy, smiling faces all around us, have made our stay here a very wonderful experience.

"Soon we shall all have left for England. We must return to our own country. You will see us smiling as we go, happy to be going home, but above all happy to be taking such grand memories of Canada away with us. We shall not forget them.

"Thank you again for all you have done for us. Good-bye, good luck and God bless you all."

Use Permanent Force Men To Make Up Interim Force

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP).—The army is accepting for its two-year interim force only men who are prospective members of the permanent force, the veterans committee of the Commons was told today.

Air Commodore J. MacL. Murray said the R.C.A.F. accepted into its interim force certain categories of men who would never be permanent force members. But the great bulk, he said later, were prospective permanent airmen.

Cmdr. C. S. Sharpe said the navy, like the army, would probably not post to the interim force a man who would not see permanent force service.

Leaves for England

PTE. LARS ONGSTADT

A Hongkong repatriate, posted in Victoria since arriving on the United States troopship Admiral Hughes, who left Monday with a party of British servicemen for New York to board the liner Queen Mary.

While in Victoria, he and Lt. George Baker, also a repatriate, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Melby, 3329 Glasgow Avenue, and other friends.

During his stay, Pte. Ongstadt spent a furlough with his uncle and relatives at Seattle. Following discharge from the army, he will return to his home in Norway.

Remembrance Day

Remembrance Day Committee, composed of Greater Victoria ex-servicemen and women, will hold its annual Poppy Day tomorrow. Individual poppies, corsages and automobile windshield displays will be sold by taggers on the streets. The committee office at 1220 Government Street will be open from 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. tomorrow. Joseph E. Downey is in charge of the annual campaign.

Bare War Secret

One of Victoria's best-kept war secrets is housed in an unpretentious building at the rear of the B.C. Telephone Company office, it was revealed yesterday by National Defence headquarters.

Although possessing a warehouse-like appearance, the building was the nerve centre for Vancouver Island of the Pacific communications system, with wires leading to strategic points the length and breadth of the Island.

The building's plain appearance and the ordinary manner in which it was constructed aroused few questions, according to B.C. Telephone men who now staff the equipment. It was opened in April, 1944, carrying teletype and telephone communications to all branches of the armed forces.

Family Misses Dog

Loss of a three-legged dog has saddened the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hole, at 2914 Douglas Street. The family pet was run over by a dairy truck at the intersection of Douglas Street and Burnside Road at 11:45 a.m. yesterday.

Mr. Hole, who served in the R.C.N.V.R. for nearly five years, received his discharge with the rank of leading seaman last month.

He raised the dog from a pup, eight years ago, and it was the constant companion of his wife while he was at sea. It lost a leg in an accident some time ago.

At the Theatres

Musical Western Stars Roy Rogers

Republic's "Man From Oklahoma," musical Western starring Roy Rogers, now at the Dominion Theatre, is the hilarious story of two pioneer Oklahoma families taking part in the celebration of the land rush anniversary—and the sequence was filmed at almost the same time the real anniversary was an event of the State.

George "Gabby" Hayes in a role as the crotchety head of one of the feuding families, carries the comedy lead, while Dale Evans, pretty blonde singing actress, has the romantic role opposite Rogers.

CADET THEATRE Eve Arden, who portrays the part of a Russian woman guerrilla fighter in the Warner Bros.' comedy, "The Doughgirls," now showing at the Cadet Theatre, is the kind of a girl soldiers like to whistle at. She is very pretty. Blonde green eyes. Tall. The height might have a little to do with it, but most of all it is the healthy, outdoor look.

CAPITOL THEATRE Bill Goodwin proves he's as good an actor as he is a radio announcer in Paramount's "Incendiary Blonde," the Technicolor musical now showing at the Capitol Theatre. Betty Hutton is co-starred with Arturo de Cordova in this picture, which describes the life story of Texas Guinan. Also in the cast are Barry Fitzgerald, Charles Ruggles and Bill Goodwin.

PLAZA THEATRE James McKechnie, who has the important role of good-looking Lieutenant "Spud" Wilson in the gorgeous G. C. F. Technicolor film, "Colonel Blimp," now playing at the Plaza Theatre, was born in Glasgow, Scotland. Co-starring in "Colonel Blimp" are Anton Walbrook, Roger Livesey and Deborah Kerr, who plays McKechnie's girl friend in the latter part of the film. McKechnie calls her his Mata Hari.

ATLAS THEATRE In "The Affairs of Susan," Joan Fontaine is loved in turn by four men, Walter Abel, George Brent, Don DeFore and Dennis O'Keefe—a businessman, a Broadway producer, a lumber tycoon from the West and a Greenwich Village poet. Joan switches her character to suit each man, and has to switch her style of dressing, too. "The Affairs of Susan" is now showing at the Atlas Theatre.

YORK THEATRE Jack Carson, currently co-starring with Rosalind Russell in Warners' "Roughly Speaking" at the York Theatre, is the oaf who always loses the girl. You've seen him in action countless times. At cocktail bars, in open cars, or on the front porch swing. Jack always manages to be around to congratulate, but never to win, the luscious bride. Now, at last, he gets a chance to hold her tenderly at the fade-out.

RIO THEATRE The fact that the Nazis have placed a price on his head does not in the least deter John Wengraf from portraying such despicable characters as Gestapo agents on the screen. His current role as one of the Nazi officials in Columbia's "U-Boat Prisoner," now playing at the Rio Theatre, is no exception.

"Blossom Time" Opens At Royal Tonight

To costume the famous Schubert-Romberg operetta, "Blossom Time," which comes to the Royal Victoria tonight and Saturday, the Messrs. Schubert, the producers, selected Max Weldy, the Parisian, whose imaginative creations have already won him a reputation second to none. Along with the new sets and scenery, the operetta has been equipped with fresh period costumes. But with all of the streamlining, the producers have been careful to preserve the charm and atmosphere of old Vienna—Vienna of the 1820's—an age of powdered wigs and pantalettes, in which a gentleman was measured by the ruffs on his dickey, and a lady by the number of petticoats she could afford. "Blossom Time" provides an excellent picture of the changing cycle of fashion, in which it is really apparent that the vogue of the day before yesterday usually becomes a la mode tomorrow.

Sunday Midnight Preview at Capitol

Shown overseas to American soldiers far in advance of its domestic release, Warners' jubilant story of George Gershwin, "Rhapsody in Blue," will be previewed Sunday midnight at the Capitol Theatre. Starring screen newcomer Robert Alda as the gifted composer and Joan Leslie, Alexis Smith and Charles Coburn, "Rhapsody in Blue" is the moving story of Gershwin's turbulent rise to fame. Interwoven in the film are many of his songs, including "Rhapsody in Blue."

Directed by Irving Rapper, the picture was produced by Jesse L. Lasky.

Weddings

SAUNDERS—GILLILAND

A pretty wedding was solemnized last evening at Metropolitan United Church by Rev. Dr. A. E. Whitehouse when Helen Edna, youngest daughter of Mrs. W. J. Gilliland, 319 Walter Street, and the late Mr. Gilliland, became the bride of Warrant Officer Douglas Alexander Saunders, R.C.E.M.E., veteran of five and a half years service overseas, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Saunders, 1327 Coventry Avenue.

Mr. Edgar Holloway presided at the organ.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Harry Gilliland, the bride was radiant in white satin fashioned with deep lace yoke, sweetheart neckline, lily point sleeves, and full skirt featuring two panels of lace down the front. Her veil of illusion net cascaded to the floor from a halo of pleated satin. A single strand of pearls and a shower bouquet of white carnations and small chrysanthemums completed the ensemble.

Mrs. F. R. Skinner, wearing Alice blue net over taffeta with picture hat of apricot mohair, was the only attendant.

Best man was Mr. Gordon Robinson and the usher Mr. Roy Baker.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Johns, 1515 Despard Avenue.

For a honeymoon at Banff the bride wore a tailored green wool suit with matching flower felt hat, Hudson seal coat, the gift of the groom, and gardenias en corsage. The couple will make their home in the city for the present.

Miss Sanders Appeals to Women to Keep Costs Down

The danger of inflation is more serious during this period of transition from war to peace than at any time during the war, Miss Byrne Hope Sanders, director consumer branch, Wartime Prices and Trade Board, Ottawa, stated in an appeal to the Local Council of Women to concentrate their efforts to avoid this danger in an address at the Y.W.C.A., Thursday afternoon.

[illegible] inevitable shortages with civilians buying what they want, not what they actually need, at any cost. "It is only natural after six years of war."

"We are in the last phase of a difficult period; if we can weather this short period we can avoid the crash that follows war," she stated.

Explaining the continuing shortages, Miss Sanders said they were due mainly to 50 per cent production having been turned to war, labor shortages and the greatly increased buying power. For example, she stated, there was a definite shortage of children's underwear, yet the output of these articles had been increased 60 per cent since the beginning of the war.

"De-control is going ahead quickly with regulations against civilian production being already lifted. Everything is being done to get civilian goods on the market for the public. Five out of six production orders have already gone, only the vitally important directives to essential production being retained. These are the orders holding prices down and assuring equitable distribution.

"Rationing of butter, sugar and meat will continue for a while," Miss Sanders said, "as the starving people of Europe need what Canada has to send." Meat rationing had made it possible for Canada to ship seven times as much meat to Europe in two weeks as had been sent in a previous three months' period. Canadian meat consumption was cut 12 per cent, but, she stated, meat consumption in Canada had actually increased 32 per cent during 1944.

Miss Sanders will broadcast over CJVI at 10 p.m. Friday.

The executive committee of Oak Bay Red Cross met Tuesday with the president, Sir Henry Drayton, in the chair. Mrs. S. G. Cox, of the Provincial Advisory Committee on Home Nursing, outlined plans for a course in home nursing beginning November 26, at 2:30 p.m. in the old Oak Bay High School. Classes will be under the joint board of St. John-Red Cross home nursing. A committee was named to receive registrations.

Kitchen Lore and Homecraft

Making the Most of Bacon

The temptation to serve bacon "as is" has to be resisted these days because three strips per person counts up in coupon value. The same tokens which allow half pound of bacon will provide from one to one and one-half pounds of some other meats. So when we do buy bacon we should make the most of it.

Bacon has such a definite flavor, it is possible to make a little go a long way when mixed with other foods. The home economists of the Consumer Section, Dominion Department of Agriculture, suggest ways by which a small amount of bacon may be made to serve six persons.

BACON CAKES

5 medium potatoes
6 strips bacon
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
2 tablespoons chopped onions
Salt and pepper

[illegible] bacon in small pieces. Cook in frying pan until crisp and brown. Remove from pan and mix with mashed potatoes and seasonings. Shape into cakes and saute in bacon fat. Six servings.

BACON AND NOODLE CUSTARD

6 slices bacon
3 cups cooked noodles (1¼ cups raw)
2 beaten eggs
¼ cup milk
2 tablespoons minced onion
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon paprika

Line muffin pans with bacon strips. Mix cooked noodles with eggs, milk and seasonings. Fill pans. Bake in a slow oven, 350 deg. F., for half hour. Six servings.

CHEESE BACON TEA BISCUITS

3 strips bacon
2 cups pastry flour, or
2 cups less 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons baking powder
3 tablespoons bacon fat
½ cup grated cheddar cheese
½ cup milk

Cook bacon until crisp. Cool. Chop. Sift flour with salt and baking powder. Blend in fat, grated cheese and bacon. Add milk. Turn on a floured board. Pat out to desired thickness. Cut in rounds. Place on a baking sheet. Bake in a very hot over, 425 deg., F., for 12 to 15 minutes. Makes 12 biscuits.

Unselfishness goes far to make a merry Christmas.

Warm Golden Corncake Is Tempting

GOLDEN corncake should be served more often. Here is a splendid recipe:

¾ cup cornmeal
1 cup flour
1-3 cup sugar
3 teaspoons baking powder
¾ teaspoons salt
1 cup milk
1 egg, well beaten
2 tablespoons melted shortening

Be sure to use tartrate or phosphate type baking powder. Mix and sift dry ingredients; add milk, egg and shortening; bake in shallow buttered pan for 20 minutes in hot oven (425 degrees). Any fresh shortening may be used. This can be varied by using 1 cup of heavy sour cream and ¾ cup milk and 1 teaspoon soda and 2 teaspoons cream of tartar in place of baking powder and sweet milk. Another variation that is favored is: Omit sugar and substitute ⅔ cup milk and ¼ cup molasses. Fruit may be added—peaches cut small are delicious in this recipe.

Little Tricks With Meat

Cook and chop bacon . . . sprinkle over cooked vegetables.

Mix a little cooked, chopped bacon with scrambled eggs or fold into an omelet.

Chop, mix with salad dressing and use as a sandwich filling . . . saute the sandwich in bacon fat.

For "bacon and eggs" for breakfast, saute slices of bread in bacon fat and serve a poached egg on each.

Cabbage with Sausage

8 cups shredded cabbage (1 medium cabbage)
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup boiling water
2 lbs. sausage
½ teaspoon caraway seeds
1 cup boiling water

Cook cabbage with salt in 1 cup boiling water, 5 minutes. Brown sausage in frying pan. Place in a casserole, cover with cooked cabbage. Pour off all but two tablespoons of fat from the frying pan. Add 1 cup boiling water to the pan and bring to boil. Pour over cabbage and sprinkle with caraway seeds. Bake, uncovered, in a hot oven, 425 deg. F., for 10 minutes. Six servings.

Poppy Day Benefits Veterans

Saturday is Poppy Day and poppies made by disabled veterans will be sold on the city streets. The proceeds will be placed in a fund upon which veterans and their families may draw in emergency.

All through the year the disabled veterans have labored at the Johnson Street workshop and now some 50,000 poppies of various types are ready for sale in Greater Victoria.

It is noteworthy that the Victoria men made poppies for all of British Columbia.

Purpose of Poppy Day is threefold: Remembrance for those dead in this and the last war; giving employment to disabled veterans of both wars; and continuance of the fund for veterans and their families. The latter is available to men of both the Great War and the World War.

Mr. Joseph E. Downey, veteran of this war and campaign manager, has made an appeal for volunteer workers on Saturday. Any who wish to help may apply at headquarters, 1220 Government Street, or by telephoning E 0932.

NO. 278—EIGHTY-SEVENTH YEAR — VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1945

SPORTS SLANTS

By SID THOMAS

TOP-FLIGHT CAGE SQUADS COMING

Inter-city basketball rivalry established almost a decade ago, will be revived one week from this Saturday at the Victoria High School gymnasium, when the Victoria Dominoes step on the maple court to oppose Seattle Alpines in the first game of the 1945-46 series of inter-city casaba contests.

Dominoes and Alpines have appeared in some spine-tingling exhibitions both here and in the Sound City, but for a low-scoring, close-checking battle the 1936 contest on the local floor probably takes the cake. Alpines won the game, 19-16, admittedly low scoring for Senior "A" men's basketball.

Return here of the Alpines will mark the beginning of a new and interesting inter-city schedule which promises to provide Victoria fans with top-flight basketball attractions for the next 12 weeks. Ivan Temple, secretary of the Victoria and District Basketball League, and his associates, are lining up a fixture list that will include top civilian and service clubs from across the border.

Such service favorites as the Fort Lewis Warriors, winners of the international tournament here last season; Sand Point Naval Air Station, United States Coast Guard, and Walla Walla Flyers are among a few of the top-flight American teams expected to visit here during the year. Then, too, the local officials are living in hopes of bringing the University of Oregon hoopsters here before the end of the season.

From this imposing array of casaba talent it looks as if the Victoria cage fans are going to get a lot of first-class entertainment during the present season.

GATHERED FROM HERE AND THERE

Long a popular and familiar figure at Brentwood, mecca of sport fishermen, Percy Stacey, operator of Stacey's Boathouse at Goldstream for the past ten years, has announced his retirement. A friend to all anglers, Percy Stacey will be missed by the many ardent fishermen from all parts of British Columbia and the United States who have many times visited Brentwood. He will take with him happy memories of the days spent at Goldstream, of his many fine associations with sports fishermen and the knowledge that he made many friends. We join with those friends in wishing him many more happy days. May he live long to enjoy the rest and comfort he rightly deserves . . . Wally Rowe, one of this city's outstanding goalies a few years back, is going to hit the "comeback trail" with the youthful Toppers. Rowe's experience and knowledge of the game should prove very beneficial to this promising young club, and we know the players will listen to his words of advice . . . Toronto Maple Leafs, Stanley Cup champions, had their fifth defeat of the current N.H.L. campaign hung on them last night when they dropped a 3-2 decision to the Detroit Red Wings. It would not be at all surprising to this scribbler if the Leafs send out the SOS call for Mr. Frankie McCool any time now . . . Lt. Ken Jones, who played with the championship Canadian Army soccer team overseas, will turn out for Manager "Jock" McColl's V.M.D. footballers this week . . . Most of our readers seemed fairly well satisfied with the Victoria All-Star soccer team selected for the inter-city match with the classy Vancouver St. Saviours next Monday, judging by the comments along sports row. A thankless job at its best, the task of selecting an all-star team is not one to be envied . . . Nanaimo Clippers appear to be the class of the Pacific Coast Junior Hockey League right at the moment. Battling in defence of the championship they annexed last season, the Clippers have marked up three victories in as many starts. Nice going, Nanaimo Clippers . . . One of the heaviest soccer schedules in years will be presented here over the holiday week-end, with three senior league fixtures Saturday and Sunday and the inter-city match on Monday.

Black Hawks Turn Back Rangers, 5-4; Leafs Lose Again

HOW THEY STAND

	W.	L.	D.	Goals F.	Goals A.	Pts.
Chicago	4	1	0	26	21	8
Canadiens	3	1	0	20	13	6
Detroit	3	1	0	15	6	6
Boston	2	2	1	15	21	5
Rangers	1	3	0	8	13	2
Toronto	0	5	1	15	25	1

Last night's scores: Chicago 5, Rangers 4; Detroit 3, Toronto 2.

Next games, Saturday: Boston at Canadiens; Chicago at Toronto; Detroit at Rangers.

DETROIT, Nov. 8 (AP).—Detroit Red Wings, scoring twice in the final period, within a span of 24 seconds, defeated the Toronto Maple Leafs, 3-2, tonight in a National Hockey League penalty-fest before 11,850 fans.

With four players, two from each line, drawing penalties all at once for fisticuffing in the second period, Toronto lost 13 minutes in penalties and Detroit 12. At least one player was in the penalty box when every goal was scored.

Gordon Bell, 21-year-old Toronto goal-tender just back from the Canadian Navy, held the Wings scoreless in the first period but couldn't hold his own while the Leafs were short on manpower.

Wally Stanowski was serving an interference penalty when Bill Quackenbush scored Detroit's first goal at 1:36 of the second period.

Billy Taylor and Hal Jackson squared off in a fist fight a moment later and after Taylor apparently had won the bout with a head lock, Adam Brown and Bill Ezinicki tangled in what looked like the makings of a free-for-all.

When the fighting died down, all four principals went to the penalty box, all but Taylor drawing major five-minute penalties.

Thirty seconds before Jackson, Brown and Ezinicki got back in the game, Gaye Stewart, of the Leafs, tied the score with a shot from eight feet after Stanowski's pass.

Gerry Couture's sharp angle shot flashed the goal light before the period ended, but Referee Bill Chadwick ruled that the puck hadn't entered the net.

The final period wasn't two and a half minutes old when Bob Davidson drew a holding penalty, setting off Detroit's game-winning flurry of goals.

Adam Brown punched in his own rebound seven seconds after Davidson left the ice, and 17 seconds later Harry Watson hammered a ten-footer past Bell, with Brown assisting.

Hal Jackson was off for tripping Gus Bodnar when Syl Apps scored the second Toronto goal with only nine minutes to play.

The defeat was Toronto's fifth against a single tie this season, while Detroit's victory was its third in four games.

The Wings lost Murray Armstrong with a knee injury in the second period and it was believed doubtful that he would play in Detroit's Saturday game at New York.

SUMMARY

First Period—No scoring. Penalty: Schriner.

Second Period—1, Detroit, Quackenbush (Hollett), 1:36; 2, Toronto, Stewart (Bodnar, Stanowski), 8:57. Penalties: Stanowski, Taylor, Jackson (major), Brown (major), Ezinicki (major).

Third Period—3, Detroit, Brown (Liscombe), 2:28; 4, Detroit, Watson (Brown), 2:45; 5, Toronto, Apps (Baldwin), 11:18. Pepalties: Davidson, Jackson.

CHICAGO BLACK HAWKS NOSE OUT RANGERS, 5-4

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (CP).—Superior condition paid off tonight as Chicago Black Hawks skated New York Rangers into the ice for a 5-4 National Hockey League victory. The Hawks, sparked by the brilliant Mosienko - Bentley brothers' line, came from behind three times to win.

A crowd of 15,121 jammed Madison Square Garden for the local opener and saw the Hawks gain undisputed possession of first place.

The Rangers started out with a powerhouse exhibition which netted them a pair of goals in the opening period off the sticks of the veterans Ab Demarco and Neil Colville.

In the second period the brilliant Chicago line of Max and Doug Bentley swept the Rangers aside for three goals while Rangers counted twice. In the third period it was the Bentleys and Mosienko for two goals.

Max Bentley led the scoring with three counters, while diminutive Bill Mosienko dented the twine twice and got an assist on Max Bentley's third goal.

George Allen assisted on the first Max Bentley goal, scored with scarcely more than half a minute gone in the middle frame. Brother Doug helped Max 36 minutes later, Grant Warwick, on a pass from Muzz Patrick, scored the third Ranger goal in the second frame, while Alex Shibicky put the home town team ahead near the end of the period with Phil Watson and Bill Juzda assisting.

The Rangers proved better than they have been during the last four years, but lack of condition told and at the end they were exhausted. Neil Colville, back on defence, proved effective but somewhat slower than in former years.

SUMMARY

First Period—1 New York, Demarco (Warwick), 4:53; 2, New York, Colville (Laprade), 16:48. Penalties: Hamilton, Patrick, Marlucci, Watson.

Second Period—3, Chicago, M. Bentley (Allen), :32; 4, Chicago, M. Bentley (D. Bentley), 1:08; 5, New York, Warwick (Patrick), 5:45; 6, Chicago, Mosienko (Smith), 12:12; 7, New York, Shibicky (Watson, Juzda), 16:43.

Third Period — 8, Chicago, M. Bentley (Mosienko), 1:25; 9, Chicago, Mosienko (Kaleta), 18:15. Penalty: Hamilton.

V.A.S.C. WORKOUT

Members of the Victoria Amateur Swimming Club wishing to complete in the city championship gala next Tuesday are asked to attend a workout at the Crystal Garden today at 6:30 p.m.

Gridders Train on Snow-Covered Field

WINNIPEG, Nov. 8 (CP).—In spite of the six inches of snow that fell here during yesterday's blizzard, Winnipeg Blue Bombers practised outside at Osborne Stadium tonight.

Some 35 players, trying for a berth among the 24 to be chosen for the Western football final Saturday with Calgary Stampeders, romped through the snow which covered their boot tops for an hour.

The practice session dealt mostly with timing, signal-calling, passing plays, placement kicking and punting. There was no scrimmage.

Bill Nairn, who is head man during the absence of Coach Bert Warwick, absent with a head cold, was glad to get the team out of doors. He said: "The boys always show a lot more zip when they're out in the open."

TOMMY McKIBBIN

One of the outstanding soccer halfbacks in the province, who will be here Monday with Vancouver St. Saviours when they oppose Victoria All-Stars in the season's inaugural inter-city football match at Royal Athletic Park. Game time is 2:30 p.m.

Believe It or Not! by RIPLEY

EXPLANATION OF YESTERDAY'S CARTOON

Norton I, Emperor of the United States—Norton I, whose seat of government was the City of San Francisco, reigned for 23 years (1852-1875), issued paper currency, enacted laws, and exercised many other prerogatives of a real imperial ruler. His real name was Joshua A. Norton. He was a native of London, coming to this country in 1817. Under the stress of business reverses, he became obsessed with the delusion of being a sovereign ruler. His personal picturesqueness and the audacity of his acts as the Emperor of the United States probably account for the fact that he was permitted to occupy the "Throne of America" for 23 years. After his death he lay in state for three days, and great throngs of his "subjects" passed before his bier to gaze at the features of the "American Emperor" for the last time.

Footballers Have Heavy Week-End Fixture List

Three First Division Matches and Inter-City Game Billed—St. Saviours Play Here Monday

Soccer will hold the spotlight in the week-end sports picture with three senior league games and one exhibition game, as well as two second division contests scheduled.

Feature of the league fixtures will be played Sunday at Royal Athletic Park when the well-balanced Nanaimo eleven stack up against an improving V.M.D. aggregation. In other games, both scheduled for tomorrow, Wests will defend their undefeated record against the Canadian Legion at Heywood Avenue, and the second-place Navy team vie with the Toppers at Royal Athletic Park. Second division games pit Oak Bay against the Navy at Windsor Park and Army against the Saanich Indians at Bullen Park. All games start at 2:30 p.m.

In addition, fans are eagerly awaiting the resumption of inter-city ball with the league-leading Vancouver St. Saviours, one of the most powerful clubs assembled on the Mainland for some time, here for an exhibition game against a selected team from the Victoria and District Football League at Royal Athletic Park on Monday.

Dropped into a fourth-place tie after their loss to the Navy on their home grounds last Sunday, Nanaimo will bring down their strongest club of the season as they attempt to close the gap separating them from the top teams.

A new fullback combination will be in evidence as Manager Jim Knight attempts to plug what has been a definite weakness. Alex Ferrier, just out of the services, will take over one spot with the heady Jim Sinclair dropping back from the half line. Big Jack Horne will move into Sinclair's centre half slot with Johnny Golobar again taking over his old place at left half.

A revamped forward line also promises additional improvement. Uke Grey's injured ankle has mended and the veteran will take over at inside left with Allan Todd on the wing. Jim Rice, clever centre forward, will be back, making it possible to move Easterbrook to the right wing. Art Denton, who has starred in every game, completes the line at inside right.

With two wins and a draw in their last three starts, V.M.D. will be a threat. Gordie Perkins will play his second game at right back and Alec Dallimore will be back at inside left. Late additions to the club are gradually working in well, and the shipbuilders are fully capable of giving any club in the league quite a handful.

Still trying to find a winning combination, Legion have signed Simpson, Okell, Fogden and Medley, back from the services, and have shifted their line-up to include three of the newcomers in the starting eleven. Wests' line-up will be slightly altered, with Murray Speller back in action, although Jimmy Oakman will be unable to play. Gordie Cooper, another former Greenshirt, will start at fullback or on the half line with Alan Reside returning after an absence of one game at left wing. Joe Travis may take over in the nets if Clarkson is not available.

Their line-up constantly changing with the addition of new players as others leave, Navy will again present a strong club, composed mainly of Royal Navy players. Fred Ruff, former member of West Ham United, will be joined by Wares, another ex-member of the same club who will perform at inside right. Fish, McQuinn and Mercham are new additions, replacing Waterlow, Miles and Bennett. Toppers are expected to make no changes in their line-up.

Line-ups follow:

Legion — Evans, McConnell, Wyatt, Okell, Watson, Tregallis, Costain, Duncan, Fogden, Wright, Simpson, Felton, Medley, McLaren, Cridge.

Wests—Travis, Clarkson, R. Bell, Cooper, C. Robbins, Speller, McMillan, Barnswell, Musgrave, G. Bell, Hayward, Reside, Hutchinson, Youson.

V.M.D.—Baker, Peden, Perkins, Wishart, J. Robbins, McCormick, Jones, Parks, Payne, Dallimore, Holness, Robinson, Burt, Glancy, Wiseman.

Navy—Stewardson, Ruff, Shirley, Fish, DeCosta, Miller, Crosby, Wares, Smith, McQuinn, Mercham, Williams, Ball.

Swedish Officials Silent on Charges of Professionalism

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 8 (AP).—The Swedish Athletic Association remained officially silent tonight regarding a story carried earlier in the day by the newspaper Expressen that Gunder Haegg and Arne Andersson, world record-breaking track athletes, had been declared professional.

Previously the association had said it was making an investigation of charges that leading athletic clubs were paying top-flight runners to represent them, and indicating that disciplinary action would be taken.

Haegg and Andersson, who had been invited to compete in the United States this Winter, are the most widely known among the 15 track athletes The Expressen said had been declared professional.

Swedish sports writers feared the world records of the two famous runners might be erased, especially if it is found that the offences which cost them their amateur standing had been committed before the races.

Lennart Strang, a newcomer who defeated Andersson in the Swedish national 1,500 metres last Summer and later out-ran both Andersson and Haegg in an international mile, was not listed among the athletes Expressen said had been classed professional.

Mustangs to Face Vancouver Squad

High-Scoring Kitsilano High School Gridders To Meet Locals in Canadian Football Fixture

Victoria Mustangs will face some of their toughest competition of the season at Macdonald Park tomorrow when they come up against a rather potent Kitsilano squad in a Canadian football match.

Coached by Johnny Farina, former backfield ace of the U.B.C., Kits have been high school champions of Vancouver for the past two seasons and are in the thick of the battle again this year. Six players who were on the provincial titleholders two years ago form the nucleus of the present aggregation, while all other members of the team have had at least one season in high school football.

Mustangs will be out to avenge the crushing 52-0 loss suffered two years ago by the Victoria Combines in the provincial finals against Kitsilano, but will have their hands full. Kitsilano boast an exceptionally heavy line with an average of 185 pounds, which is not likely to be pushed around. Although the backfield is on the light side, speed and deception make their running attack dangerous.

Two men to watch in the Kits' backfield are the Thodos brothers, Peter and Leo. Playing left halfback against West Vancouver High last week, Peter scored five touchdowns and kicked seven out of eight converts, while Leo, at the other half, scored four touchdowns and converted another as Kitsilano established a new high-scoring record with a 53-0 triumph.

With the return of Tommy Joyce and Ray Mitchell, as a pair of speedy backs, Mustangs will be better fortified than they were last week against North Vancouver. Vince Clarkson, hard - charging guard, who was also missing a week ago, may be back in the line-up and his presence would add strength to the Victoria forward wall.

With one game under the Canadian code under their belts, Mustangs figure to be an improved club and were pronounced fit by Coach Bill Bishop, following a stiff scrimmage earlier this week. Steve Rynoski and Len French both received injuries during the workout but will be able to start. Officials were unable to state yesterday what arrangements have been made for entertainment at the game but anticipating one of the season's largest crowds, are attempting to complete arrangements for the appearance of a band. Game time will be 2:30 p.m.

Line-up of the Victoria Mustangs follows: Ends, O'Connell, O'Brien and Cole; tackles, Quest, Brown and Kissinger; guards, Turner, Lott, Barry and Clarkson; centres, Moonen and Slang; halfbacks, French, Joyce, Mitchell and Ross; quarterbacks, Harper and Rynoski; fullbacks, Denoni and Pegg; blocking back, Konkin.

Tom Lawton Sold To Chelsea Club

LONDON, Nov. 8 (CP).—Tom Lawton, usually described as the best centre-forward of the past 20 years, was sold to the Chelsea club for between $40,000 and $56,000 today in one of the biggest deals in the history of British soccer.

The exact price was not disclosed either by Chelsea or by the Everton club, which Lawton joined ten years ago when he was 17. Lawton is still in the British Army and not due for demobilization until next June.

Senior Cage Teams To Meet Tomorrow

VICTORIA Dominoes will make their second start [illegible] High School gymnasium tomorrow evening when they go up against the K.V.'s for the second time this season. Playing their first game since their reorganization, Dominoes had little difficulty in beating their young opponents last Saturday and will be favored to repeat their triumph.

The potent Dave Nicol-coached club will be ready for an extensive series of exhibition games, commencing a week from Saturday with the appearance here of the famed Seattle Alpines. University of British Columbia will follow one week later and local cage officials are busy lining up other squads from across the line for Saturday night contests.

Preliminary games tomorrow will see the league-leading Black and Whites senior "B" five tangle with the sailors from H.M.C.S. Uganda, and the Eaglettes and Unitys, both coached by Wally Yeamans, meeting for the first time in the opener. First game will start at 7 p.m., with the feature billed to start at 9 p.m.

Says Anti-Inflation Struggle At Critical Stage in Canada

Canada faces the most difficult period in the struggle against inflation, Rotarians were told at their Empress Hotel luncheon yesterday by Miss Byrne Hope Sanders, Ottawa, secretary of the consumers branch of Wartime Prices and Trade Board and editor of Chatelaine magazine.

[illegible] 100 years, prices had climbed and crashed, she pointed out, and vigilance was needed to ensure it did not happen again. Canada had the greatest backlog of spending power in the country's history, she stated, and consumers with an estimated $9,000,000,000 of savings were waiting for relaxation of controls.

[illegible]

best fed and best clothed nation in the world in spite of shortages.

W.P.T.B. officials felt Canada would be out of many of her difficulties early in 1946, Miss Sanders stated. She noted the fact that Canada's cost of living had risen only 19 per cent since the start of the war and four per cent after price control started. In the United States, living costs had risen 28 per cent, in England 31 per cent, in [illegible] 89 per cent, in Mexico [illegible] per cent and 2000 per cent in China.

A Bizarre Bit

As 1000 British Tommies on "size 30" insisted, the clerks in the pink-pantry counter feebly resisted this onslaught at hand-to-hand range, that was fought at a U.S. post-exchange. "Golly-whizz," an embarrassed clerk said, "for 3 days has my face been red!" These English boys were Jap prisoners for over three years, but this ecstatic beach-head seemed to blot out past fears. "Cheerio, Miss," and under the arm of one blue-eyed boy was a butcher-wrapped package of cosmetic joy. And so this battle of sachet, lavender and ... But the climax came when a jolly Tar said he'd like to buy his wife an American Bazaar. The clerk's cheeks more crimson (if possible) went, but she still knew exactly what he meant.

You'll know cos-tactic what we mean when we say we can put furniture in your home for less when U see this ... or full size slumber outfit consisting of Spring-filled mattress, ribbon steel spring, and walnut finished steel grace line bed, all for $49.00

U.S. Will Compete In Davis Cup Play

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 8 (AP).—Sir Norman Brookes, chairman of Australia's Davis Cup committee, said today that the United States Lawn Tennis Association has accepted an invitation to compete in the Davis Cup challenge round in Australia in December, 1946. Australia currently holds the cup.

Brookes said he was certain England would also participate and added that "people in the European and American zones can better answer whether Italians, Germans, Austrians, Argentinians or even nationals of neutral nations should be permitted to challenge for the Davis Cup."

Hemispheric elimination rounds are planned for the Summer of 1946.

Race Trainer Is Suspended

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (AP).—Tom Smith, trainer for the Maine Chance Farm which leads all American racing stables with winnings of more than $500,000 this year, today was suspended by the Jockey Club for one year on a charge of using a drug on the horse Magnific Duel.

The Jockey Club, which controls virtually all major tracks in the United States, revoked Smith's licence until November 1, 1946, denying him all privileges on tracks under its jurisdiction.

The stable itself, owned by Mrs. Elizabeth (Arden) Graham of the cosmetic interests bearing her name, will not be affected by the ruling in the future.

Today's action resulted from the third race at Jamaica, November 1, a $3,000, six-furlong test for maiden fillies won by Magnific Duel.

In their meeting here, Jockey Club stewards ordered Magnific Duel's share of the purse forfeited and declared Grant Thorne's Meadow Maid the winner.

Discuss Plans for Resumption of Car Racing at Langford

Nominations for officers of the British Columbia Automotive Sports Association were received at a meeting held earlier this week. Elections will be held at the next meeting, to be held on Wednesday, December 5, at Room 124, Pemberton Building.

Reports were heard from John Wright on the activities of his publicity committee and from "Pike" Green on racing currently taking place in Seattle and the American cars available for next season's racing here.

Further progress towards the resumption of racing here next Summer was made and a motion passed that staging of races next year at the Langford Speedway be under the control of the B.C.A.S.A.

Says Soldiers "Duped"

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP).—Charges that Canadian soldiers overseas were "duped" into accepting correspondence courses in chiropody on the advice of Canadian Legion educational officers were made by Walter Owen, counsel for the British Columbia Association of Chiropodists, speaking at Mr. Justice J. M. Harper's Royal Commission here yesterday.

Mr. Owen said the army's educational services were "woefully negligent" in recommending the correspondence course without having proper inquiries from sources easily available to them.

J. E. Eades, counsel for the commission, agreed that the educational requirements for chiropody in British Columbia (high school matriculation and three years at a recognized school of chiropody) are not too severe.

Gives Talk on Stars

Chemical changes which produced heat and light in the sun were the same as those taking place in the atomic bomb, Dr. K. O. Wright, of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, told members of Vancouver Island Branch of Chemical Institute of Canada at a meeting in the Department of Mines museum last night.

The only difference between the two was that the sun's heat was produced by transformation of hydrogen atoms to helium, whereas the atomic bomb's explosive power came from the fission off uranium. Temperatures of 20,000,000 degrees centigrade, which could not be reproduced on earth, were responsible for the hydrogen reaction, Dr. Wright explained.

Many things about chemical reactions in the stars were not known, the speaker said. "Red giants" of the sky were among the astronomer's puzzles. A study he had made of the atmosphere of solar-type stars showed the same elements as in the sun, but at different temperatures and pressures, Dr. Wright noted.

Photography Exhibit

Plans to enter a display of local photographs at the Vancouver Art Gallery in January were discussed last night at a meeting of the Victoria Camera Club in the Y.M.C.A. George J. Alexander, president, announced nominations for new officers would be received at the next meeting.

Junior members who won the November contest were: C. Hallway, first, and W. Wakelyn, second and third.

Color slides of Eastern Canada, Interior British Columbia and the Prairies were shown by George Willis.

Democrat Smith To Seek Election

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP).—W. R. Smith, Vancouver contractor and defeated candidate for the British Columbia Legislature, today filed nomination papers here, first candidate in the civic elections to be held next month.

When he announced his intention to contest the December 12 civic elections, Mr. Smith explained: "There's a shortage of labor. Every man has to do two jobs these days."

He is running on the Democratic ticket he supported by himself in the British Columbia elections last month.

Officials of the Lower Island Junior and Juvenile Football Association announced yesterday that the regular session of the soccer school, scheduled for this evening at the Eagles Hall, has been canceled. Next meeting will be held as scheduled a week from tonight.

Victoria Cagers Play at Duncan

Three Victoria cage squads will journey to Duncan this evening to play a like number of Duncan clubs in a triple exhibition bill at the Up-Island centre. J.B.A.A. intermediate "A" hoopsters will play in the feature contest against the strong Duncan intermediate "B" team, with Mooneys Crescents tangling with a boys' club in the second game and Unitys meeting the Duncan women's club in the opener.

Nanaimo Clippers Chalk Up Third Straight Victory

NEW WESTMINSTER, Nov. 8 (CP).—Nanaimo Clippers, the defending champions, scored their third straight win without a loss in the Pacific Coast Junior Hockey League when they trounced New Westminster Cubs, 8-2, here tonight.

Vince Bannon led the Islanders with three goals. Agie Louden, Hugh Scott and Red Koehle netted the others. Ike Hildebrand and Dennis Barkley counted for New Westminster.

Uplands Golf Club Enjoys Good Year

Marking the close of another successful season, the annual meeting of the Uplands Golf Club was held last night in the clubhouse. Reports of the past season were submitted and accepted, and the retiring officers were thanked for their work on behalf of the club.

R. B. Mathews, J. Patterson, J. D. Ferguson, C. F. Smith and Gordon Verley were elected to the executive and will serve with R. Williams, R. Ard, E. Badminton, E. Revercomb and Dr. J. D. Calvert, who still have one year to complete on the board.

J. B. Beveridge will continue as secretary and Walter Gravlin as club professional.

John Wren, who recently returned from his wartime position, will act as official starter for all club tournaments.

HOCKEY DELEGATE

Ivan Temple, head coach of the Victoria Minor Hockey Association, will leave this afternoon for Nelson to attend the annual meeting of the British Columbia Amateur Hockey Association, which will be held at the inland centre tomorrow and Sunday.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8 (AP).—Herb Mitchell, former National Hockey League player, was named coach of Baltimore Clippers in the Eastern Amateur Hockey League, today to succeed Jim Foley, who was given an outright release.

Seattle Drops Sixth Straight Hockey Match

PORTLAND, Nov. 8 (CP).—The Portland Eagles blanked the Seattle Ironmen, 2-0, tonight to tighten their hold on second place in the Pacific Coast Hockey League.

Jerry Fodey, Portland goalie, racked up the first shut-out of the season, stopping everything that came his way in a masterful job of net tending. Al Rollins, Ironmen goaltender, was almost as sharp in the net, stopping 39 shots. Fodey had 36 saves.

Portland cracked the ice late in the first period to take a 1-0 lead when Eddie Shamlock, after skating through the Seattle defence, slipped a short pass to Joe Conn, who came in fast to score from the side of the net.

The second period saw no scoring but there was plenty of fast skating and hard checking to keep the fans in an uproar.

Phil Dalgleish, big defenceman, scored the second Portland tally early in the last period when he picked up the puck near the Portland goal and skated up the ice. He swung around the Seattle defence and caught the net with a hard shot from about ten feet away.

The defeat was the sixth straight for the Seattle Ironmen.

SUMMARY

First Period—1, Portland, Conn (Shamlock), 18:52. Penalties: Kyle, Milford.

Second Period—No scoring. Penalties: Conn, Coombs, Warshawski.

Third Period—2, Portland, Dalgleish, 4:27. Penalties: Dalgleish, Watt, Milliard, Warshawski, Webster, Jenkins.

Extra Food Mid-Afternoon

By DR. J. B. WARREN

At a large university during the hours of 4 and 4.30 in the afternoon as many as 1,000 chocolate bars were sold every day.

Does this extra food interfere with the appetites of these students when the hour of the evening meal arrives? No. What happens is that this extra food—chocolate bar, banana, slice of bread and butter with sugar—at mid-afternoon gives the individual strength with which to play. It is really used up in supplying the energy to play and he does not feel weak and tired, but just naturally hungry when the evening meal time comes.

PLANETARY GUIDE FOR FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1945

Keywords for the Day: Pride, ingenuity, resourcefulness.

Friday in General: The major underlying trend is favorable today and it favors resourcefulness, wise planning, efficiency, making the most of what you have instead of buying. Minor trends operative during most of the day suggest the need for practicality, checking news, facts and figures against mistakes, misrepresentations, etc. Guard against extravagance, gossip, poor judgment. With these thoughts in mind, and with the exercise of reasonable care in details, you should be able to make progress, especially in those matters of an important or long-range nature.

If November 9 Is Your Birthdate: "Many happy returns." Famous persons born on this date include: Hedy Lamarr, movie star; Stanford White, architect; Frederick Funston, soldier.

Your Year Ahead: There is a strong and favorable accent on the private, secluded, hidden side of things this year, and you can make progress best by exploring first what lies underneath or behind the obvious factors; you'll be successful in finding the explanation or source of underlying causes and solutions to problems.

Hold Country Fair

Esquimalt High School Country Fair, officially opened on Wednesday by Trustee Mrs. R. McVie, attracted many students and visitors, and brought in more than $750. Most popular stalls and games were the home-cooking stall under direction of Shirley Johnson; the crown and anchor table under the direction of W. Charles Ozard, and the horse-racing table, also run by Mr. Ozard.

Other games included bingo, penny toss, bottle shy, face shy, and darts and bowling. Among stalls were home cooking, white elephant, under direction of Miss M. Conibear, and the plant stall under the principal, C. A. Kelly.

For elementary school students there were a fish pond run by Alan Croskill and Kenneth Weeks; a house of all sorts under Miss G. N. Hewlings, and a fortune telling booth with Olive Dorman, Margaret Wishart and Joan Davis. A snack bar was run by Miss M. Walker, aided by Joyce Empey and a staff of Hi-Y girls. Peter Thorburn was amusingly dressed as a bran pie, and Shirley Pilgrim as a girl with a thousand pockets.

Twenty-five per cent of proceeds will go to Red Cross, and 75 per cent to improvement of school sports facilities.

According to Culbertson

South made a good bid in today's deal, particularly since he was playing at match-point duplicate, but he fell down badly in the play.

South, dealer.
North-South vulnerable.
Match-point scoring.

NORTH
♠ K J 7 6
♥ A 5 4 3
♦ A 2
♣ 3 4 2

WEST
♠ 5 2
♥ K 9
♦ K J 7 6 4
♣ K Q 8 3

EAST
♠ 3
♥ Q 10 8
♦ 10 9 8 5
♣ J 10 9 7 6

SOUTH
♠ A Q 10 9 8 4
♥ J 7 6 2
♦ Q 3
♣ A

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	2 ♦	3 ♠	4 ♦*
4 ♠	5 ♦	Pass	Pass
5 ♠	Pass	Pass	Pass

East-West, of course, were "saving" when they bid up to five diamonds, and as a matter of fact they would have done well if they had been permitted to play that contract, going down only 500 points as against the sure vulnerable game for North-South. South diagnosed the situation correctly, and when North made a forcing pass over five diamonds, South refused to double in favor of trying for game.

West opened the club king, and East signalled for a come-on with the jack. After taking the blank ace, South drew trumps in two leads, then with the apparent thought that his only salvation lay in finding one defender with the blank king-queen of hearts, to limit the loss in that suit, he cashed the heart ace and led a second round. The extremely improbable break he hoped for failed to materialize—West took the heart lead and exited with a club—and there was no way for defender to avoid the loss of two tricks in hearts and one in diamonds.

The true, not unreasonable chance for the contract lay along different lines. A favorable club position was required — but not nearly so favorable as South hoped for. Proper play was to ruff dummy's clubs, as well as drawing trumps, and then to cash the heart ace. Now, when a second heart was led, if West had started with king-small, queen-small, or even king-queen-small, he would be forced to lead away from his diamond king, or give South a ruff and discard by returning another club.
